2014 USC SPRING FOOTBALL OUTLOOK

Steve Sarkisian didn't have to be shown around the USC campus or be instructed on Trojan gridiron lore when he was hired as the school's head football coach this past December.

He already was quite familiar with all things Troy, from its physical layout to its academic prestige to its football tradition and culture.

That's because this is Sarkisian's fifth time coming to USC, first as a student-athlete in the early 1990s, then as a graduate assistant coach nearly a decade later, next as an assistant coach, then as the offensive coordinator following a foray into the NFL and now as the head coach after spending the past 5 years guiding Washington.

"This is home for me," said Sarkisian, who was the quarterbacks coach on USC's 2003 national championship squad. "I am very comfortable here and very familiar with everything that is USC. I know the tradition, the passion, the support, the standard of excellence. I know what a great stadium the Coliseum is on game day.

"We will not shy away from the expectations that USC football embodies, we will embrace them. I came here to win championships and so did all of our players."

Sarkisian inherits a Trojan team that is coming off a successful, but tumultuous, 2013 season.

USC went 10-4 last year (6-3 for a second place tie in the Pac-12 South Division), including wins over No. 5 Stanford and No. 21 Fresno State in the Las Vegas Bowl. Troy finished with a No. 19 national ranking.

The Trojans accomplished all this despite having 4 head coaches during a 65-day span last fall. After fourth-year head coach Lane Kiffin was fired 5 games into the 2013 campaign (USC was 3-2 at that point), defensive line coach Ed Orgeron took over as interim head coach and went 6-2 (with a 5-game winning streak) before resigning when Sarkisian was named head coach following the end of the regular season. Offensive coordinator Clay Helton served as the interim head coach for the bowl game.

The Trojans also prevailed last year despite a roster limited by NCAA sanctions and depleted by injuries (by the Vegas Bowl, only 44 recruited scholarship players were available to play).

Eighteen starters (8 each on offense and defense, along with the kicker and punter) return from 2013 for Sarkisian's debut season. In all, 80 squadmen are back, including 53 who saw action in 2013 and 49 who lettered. Twenty-nine current Trojans were on last year's season-ending 2-deep and 29 have started at least once in their career.

Joining them are 19 new scholarship players, including 5 players who enrolled at USC this past January and will participate in spring practice. They make up a recruiting class that was ranked in the Top 10 nationally.

USC's NCAA probation officially ends this June 10, meaning the 2014 team is the last under the 3-year NCAA penalty that caps the annual roster to a maximum of 75 scholarship players and the yearly scholarship signees to 15 (that's 10 fewer than the NCAA maximum in both cases). However, because of early departures from last year's team, the 2014 Trojans will be unable to field more than 70 players on scholarship.

"We're not worried about who we don't have on the roster or what our numbers are," said Sarkisian. "What we do know is we have a roster of very talented football players who are hungry to do well."

Starters back on offense include quarterback Cody Kessler, who threw for 20 TDs and nearly 3,000 yards in a fast-finishing 2013 campaign, tailback Javorius "Buck" Allen, who had 1,027 all-purpose yards (785 rushing) and 15 touchdowns last fall, wide receiver/returner Nelson Agholor, the nation's No. 2 punt returner in 2013 who also had 56 receptions and 1,444 all-purpose yards, fullback and All-Pac-12 first team special teamer Soma Vainuku, tight end Randall Telfer (44 receptions, 10 TDs in his career) and offensive linemen Max Tuerk, Chad Wheeler and Aundrey Walker. Other offensive players who own career starts are tailbacks Tre Madden (703 rushing yards in 2013) and D.J. Morgan, wide receivers Darreus Rogers (22 catches last year) and Victor Blackwell, fullback Jahleel Pinner, offensive lineman Nathan Guertler and tight end Chris Willson. Key 2013 backup tailbacks Justin Davis and Ty Isaac (600-plus yards and 8 TDs between them last fall) also are back.

The returning starters on a defense that was in the national Top 25 in 8 statistical categories last season (including total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense and pass efficiency defense) are All-American defensive lineman Leonard Williams, who had 13.5 tackles for loss with 6 sacks in 2013, inside linebacker Hayes Pullard (USC's 2013 tackle leader with 94), cornerback-safety Josh Shaw and Freshman All-American first team safety Su'a Cravens (each had 4 interceptions in 2013), cornerback Kevon Seymour, defensive linemen J.R. Tavai and Antwaun Woods and inside linebackers Lamar Dawson and Anthony Sarao (they combined for 79 tackles while splitting starts in 2013). Other defenders back with career starts are cornerback Anthony Brown, outside linebacker Jabari Ruffin and safety Leon McQuay III. Promising young linebackers Michael Hutchings and Quinton Powell also return.

USC's placekicker, Andre Heidari (he has 40 career field goals), and punter, Kris Albarado (34.2% of his 2013 punts stopped inside the 20-yard line and he had only 4 touchbacks), return from last season, as do both snappers, Zach Smith and Peter McBride. Alex Wood, who has seen time at placekicker earlier in his career, is back, too.

"One of the goals of our staff this spring is to develop our team as individuals, then as position units and then into a team," said Sarkisian, who went to 4 bowl games and beat 8 AP Top 25 teams while at Washington. "That doesn't happen overnight, it takes time. But we pride ourselves on our ability to develop players. That's our focus this spring.

"Ultimately, as we move to the fall and get all of our injured players back, we'll see a team that has better depth than people believe. Every player will have a role on this team. We need to put them all in positions to be successful."

Although USC lost just 3 starters on each side of the ball from 2013, it will have some significant holes to fill.

Gone from Troy's offense are All-American wide receiver/returner Marqise Lee, the 2012 Biletnikoff Award winner who owns 24 USC records (including most career receiving yards, 3,655) and registered 248 receptions, 15 100-yard receiving games, 29 TD catches and 5,152 all-purpose yards as a Trojan, 2013 All-Pac-12 first team center Marcus Martin and 3-year starting tackle Kevin Graf, as well as 2013 co-starters Xavier Grimble at tight end (69 catches, 11 TDs in his career) and Silas Redd at tailback (he had nearly 3,000 rushing yards, including 12 100-yard outings, during his tenures at USC and Penn State) and one-time starters John Martinez at guard and Max Wittek at quarterback.

Defensive starters gone from last year are outside linebacker Devon Kennard, a 2013 Lott Trophy finalist who had 195 career tackles (26 for losses) as a 3-year starter, safety-linebacker Dion Bailey (222 tackles and 11 interceptions in his 3-year starting career), defensive end George Uko (85 career stops) and safety Demetrius Wright, as well as one-time starters Morgan Breslin at defensive end (he was a 2012 Hendricks Award finalist who had 17.5 sacks in 18 career games) and Torin Harris at cornerback.

Lee, Grimble, Martin, Bailey and Uko all departed after their junior seasons in order to enter the NFL draft.

Just 2 full-time assistant coaches from USC's 2013 staff were retained by Sarkisian: Helton, the offensive coordinator who handles the quarterbacks, and wide receivers coach/pass game coordinator Tee Martin, who was named the Pac-12's Recruiter of the Year in 2014. Sarkisian brought 5 assistants with him from Washington: defensive coordinator Justin Wilcox, running backs coach/special teams coordinator/assistant head coach Johnny Nansen, linebackers coach/recruiting coordinator/associate head coach defense Peter Sirmon, tight ends coach/associate head coach offense Marques Tuiasosopo and defensive backs coach/pass game coordinator defense Keith Heyward. Strength and conditioning head coach Ivan Lewis also followed him to USC. Sarkisian then hired Tim Drevno from the San Francisco 49ers to be the offensive line coach/running game coordinator and Chris Wilson from Georgia to be the defensive line coach. Two graduate assistant coaches were held over from last year's staff, Ross Cumming (defense) and Jaron Fairman (offense), and 2 others are in the process of being hired.

USC's 12-game 2014 schedule features 9 teams that played in a bowl last season, 6 that won at least 8 games (including 4 that had 10-plus victories) and 4 that were in the final AP rankings. Sarkisian's Trojan head coaching debut will come at home on Aug. 30 against 2013 Mountain West Conference champion Fresno State, the team the Trojans defeated in the Vegas Bowl to close last season (it will mark the first time since the 1916 finale and the 1917 opener that Troy has played the same team consecutively). The Trojans then travel to 2-time defending Pac-12 champion Stanford on Sept. 6 for the Pac-12's first conference game of 2014. USC stays on the road on Sept. 13 when it goes to Atlantic Coast Conference opponent Boston College, Troy's first visit there since 1988. After a bye, the Trojans resume Pac-12 play by returning home for a pair of games, first against Oregon State on Sept. 27 and then versus reigning Pac-12 South Division champ Arizona State on Oct. 4. USC then goes to Arizona on Oct. 11 before hosting Colorado on Oct. 18. Troy is on the road the following 2 weeks, at Utah on Oct. 25 and at Washington State on Nov. 1, then it has another bye weekend. The Trojans return to action by hosting California in a Thursday night contest on Nov. 13, just the second non-Thanksgiving or non-bowl Thursday game USC has played in the Coliseum. USC concludes its regular season with back-to-back encounters with its traditional rivals, first visiting crosstown foe UCLA in the Rose Bowl on Nov. 22 and then hosting Notre Dame in a Thanksgiving weekend clash on Nov. 29

OFFENSE

Eight starters return on offense from 2013: quarterback Cody Kessler, tailback Javorius Allen, wide receiver Nelson Agholor, fullback Soma Vainuku, tight end Randall Telfer and offensive linemen Max Tuerk, Chad Wheeler and Aundrey Walker. Others back with starting experience are tailbacks Tre Madden and D.J. Morgan, wide receivers Darreus Rogers and Victor Blackwell, fullback Jahleel Pinner, offensive lineman Nathan Guertler and tight end Chris Willson.

USC's leading passer, top 2 rushers (and 5 of its top 6 ground gainers) and 4 of its top 6 pass catchers (and 13 players in all who had a reception) are back from 2013. The Trojans averaged nearly 30 points and 400 total yards last year while breaking in a new signalcaller, figures that were down just slightly from the previous year when the offense was quarterbacked by a 4-year starter and featured a record-setting wideout and a career 1,000-yard runner. USC was particularly effective last fall in the red zone (sixth nationally) and in time of possession (10th nationally), both best in the Pac-12, and it cut its turnovers in half from 2012 (from 34 to just 17). However, Troy will look for improvement across the board on offense, as its key 2013 offensive stats (scoring offense at 29.7, total offense at 399.9, rushing offense at 172.8 and passing offense at 227.1) all ranked in the middle third of the nation's teams, while it particularly struggled on third down conversions (35.1%) and sacks allowed (2.43), both of which were in the bottom third.

Sarkisian, who will call the plays with help from offensive coordinator Clay Helton, will employ multiple formations on offense. But noticeably different from past USC offensive schemes will be Sarkisian's use of the hurry-up no-huddle system.

"We will be an up-tempo, no-huddle offense," said Sarkisian. "Our style will be somewhat reminiscent of what the offense was at USC when I was here before, but it will just be run at a lot faster pace. We want to be a team that runs the ball effectively and throws the ball efficiently.

"It is critical this spring for our offense to understand the principles of operation of the no-huddle, while at the same time we must teach them the offensive schemes. We want to go fast, but we want to execute at a high level of success. The key is the ability to do both"

CODY KESSLER

QUARTERBACKS

USC is in good hands at the quarterback spot.

Junior Cody Kessler (236-of-361, 65.4%, 2,968 yds, 20 TD, 7 int in 2013, plus 1 rush TD) showed continual improvement throughout 2013 in his first year as the starter, completing 65.4% of his passes for 2,968 yards and 20 TDs with just 7 interceptions. In the final 6 games of the season, he hit 70.8% of his aerials with 11 TDs and just 2 picks. He was the Las Vegas Bowl MVP, going 22-of-30 (73.3%) for a career-high 345 yards and a career-best and Vegas Bowl record 4 touchdown passes. He already is 15th on Troy's career passing chart (238 completions).

Despite that showing, Kessler will be challenged by promising redshirt freshman Max Browne, who was the nation's high school player of the year in 2012 when he set Washington State records for passing yards (12,953) and completions (882) while completing 70.4% of his throws for 146 TDs. A 2013 spring enrollee, Browne already has the benefit of spring and fall practices under his belt.

Also keep an eye on freshman Jalen Greene (Serra High in Gardena, Calif.), who went 35-6 as a 3-year starter at Serra while throwing for 6,355 yards with 68 TDs and running for 3,040 yards with 30 TDs. He graduated high school a semester early so he could enroll at USC this spring.

Three untested walk-on quarterbacks also are on the roster: senior Anthony Neyer and sophomores Conner Sullivan (a former Trojan baseballer) and Alex Bridgford, a transfer this spring from Redlands.

"We have a very talented quarterback group," said Sarkisian. "We have 3 players who can handle the things we'll ask them to do. It's a very competitive position. I'm excited to see Max and Jalen perform and I know they will push Cody to make him even better."

RUNNING BACKS

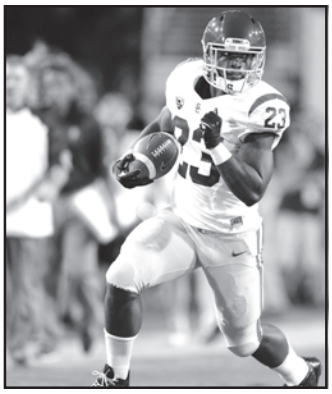
USC remains well-stocked at tailback despite the departure of Silas Redd, who had 2,959 rushing yards in his time at USC and Penn State, including 12 career 100-yard rushing games (5 at Troy, with a pair in 2013 while appearing in just 6 contests because of injuries). He ran for 376 yards at USC last year.

Three players with starting experience, plus a pair of key backups, dot the 2014 tailback corps. Junior Javorius Allen (135 tcb, team-best 785 yds, 5.8 avg, 14 TD in 2013, plus 22 rec, 252 yds, 11.5 avg, 1 TD and 2 tac), USC's 2013 team MVP who goes by the nickname "Buck," led the Trojans in rushing last season with 785 yards and 14 TDs. Most of his 2013 action came in Troy's final 6 games and he lit it up in that span, getting 648 rushing yards with 12 TDs (including a quartet of 100-yard outings) and 19 catches for 243 yards with another score. He started USC's last 4 games. Four of his TDs last year measured at least 43 yards. His 135 yards on just 6 carries at California last fall were the most yards ever on the road by a Trojan with 6 or fewer carries and the most home or away since 1954.

Before Allen burst on the scene, junior Tre Madden (138 tcb, 703 yds, 5.1 avg, 3 TD in 2013, plus 15 rec, 201 yds, 13.4 avg, 4 TD and 0-of-1 passing, 1 int) was grabbing the headlines at tailback until hamstring injuries slowed him for the second half of the 2013 season. He started the season's first 6 games, getting all but 92 of his 703 ground yards and 2 of his 15 catches in that time. He had 4 100-yard rushing outings last fall, including becoming the first Trojan to open a season with 3 consecutive 100-yard rushing games since Marcus Allen did so in 1981. His 4 receiving touchdowns in 2013 were the most by a Trojan running back since fullback Stanley Havili had 5 in 2007 and the most by a USC tailback since Reggie Bush had 7 in 2004.

Two sophomore tailbacks seeking expanded roles in 2014 had impressive debut campaigns in backup duty last year: Justin Davis (53 tcb, 361 yds, 6.8 avg, 6 TD in 2013, plus 1 rec, 7 yds, 7.0 avg), whose action came in the season's first 7 games before being sidelined with an ankle injury (he likely will miss 2014 spring practice while recovering), and Ty Isaac (40 tcb, 236 yds, 5.9 avg in 2013, plus 4 rec, 57 yds, 14.3 avg).

JAVORIUS ALLEN



TRE MADDEN

Senior D.J. Morgan, who has 364 career rushing yards and started the first 2 games of 2011, is looking to get back into the tailback rotation in 2014 after sitting out 2013 with a knee injury (he likely will be sidelined for 2014 spring drills while recuperating).

Also available at tailback are walk-ons Taylor Ross, a junior who is coming off a 2013 knee injury (he'll miss 2014 spring practice because it), and redshirt freshman James Toland.

"The tailback position is the deepest on our team," said Sarkisian. "We have 4 quality players ready to battle it out. We need this to be a strength of our team because we love to run the ball. I believe this group will allow us to do that at a very high level."

USC returns a pair of physical, yet versatile, fullbacks in juniors Soma Vainuku (8 tcb, 78 yds, 9.8 avg, 1 TD in 2013, plus 9 rec, 74 yds, 8.2 avg, 1 TD and 2 PR, 16 yds, 8.0 avg and 13 tac and 3 BLK P with a safety) and Jahleel Pinner (7 rec, 33 yds, 4.7 avg in 2013, plus 1 KOR, 1 yd, 1.0 avg). Vainuku started 3 times in 2013 but really made his mark on special teams, where he earned All-Pac-12 first team honors as a special teams performer while notching 13 tackles and 3 blocked punts. Pinner had 5 starts.

There also is redshirt freshman walk-on fullback Pat Hart.

"We have 2 talented, experienced fullbacks who give us a unique aspect on offense," said Sarkisian. "We will be able to be an up-tempo no-huddle offense while keeping a fullback on the field."

WIDE RECEIVERS

USC's wideout unit has a significant void to fill in 2014 with the departure of 3-year starter Marqise Lee, who declared for the NFL draft following his 2013 junior season. The 2012 Biletnikoff Award winner and one of college football's most electrifying offensive performers led the Trojans with 57 catches in 2013 (for 791 yards and 4 TDs). He set or tied 24 USC records (5 were Pac-12 marks) in his USC tenure, including most receptions in a season (118) and most receiving yards in a game (345), season (1,721) and career (3,655). His 248 career catches ranks second on the USC list and his 29 career TD catches is fourth. He notched 15 100-yard receiving games and 5,152 all-purpose yards (for a 15.6-yard average) at Troy. He also finished seventh on USC's career kickoff return yardage ladder (1,305 yards, with 2 TDs).

Junior Nelson Agholor (56 rec, team-best 918 yards, 16.4 avg, 6 TD in 2013, plus 18 PR, 343 yds, 19.1 avg, 2 TD and 10 KOR, 175 yds, 17.5 avg and 2 tcb, 8 yds, 4.0 avg and 1 tac), however, showed signs last fall of being Lee's equal. He had 56 receptions for a team-leading 918 yards in 2013 (he has 75 career grabs). His 6 scoring catches were the most by a Trojan last year, when he had a pair of 100-yard receiving games. He also was a dangerous return man, as he was second nationally in punt returns (19.1) and he shared the team lead in kickoff runbacks with Lee. He tied a Pac-12 record with 2 punt return TDs at California in 2013 (including a 93-yarder, the second longest in school history) and his 168 punt return yards in that Cal game was a USC mark. In all, he had 1,444 all-purpose yards in 2013.

A number of other receivers are vying to get into the starting lineup. Sophomore Darreus Rogers (22 rec, 257 yds, 11.7 avg in 2013, plus 1 PR, 5 yds, 5.0 avg and 1 tac) saw significant playing time last year, catching 22 passes and even starting 4 times. Then there are junior Victor Blackwell (4 rec, 49 yds, 12.2 avg in 2013), who saw limited action in 7 games last year (he started once), plus a pair of high-potential and speedy pass catchers who missed last fall with knee injuries: junior George Farmer and redshirt freshman Steven Mitchell (Mitchell's participation in 2014 spring practice could be limited).

Also available are 7 walk-ons with varying degrees of experience: juniors George Katrib (11 tac in 2013), who played often on 2013's special teams, Christian Tober and David Mellstrom, sophomores Robby Kolanz (1 rec, 3 yds, 3.0 avg in 2013), who appeared in 8 games last fall (a back injury likely will keep him out of 2014 spring practice), Christian Guzman and Robert Flewelling, and redshirt freshman Aaron Minor.

Joining the wide receiving corps in the fall as freshmen are prep All-Americans JuJu Smith (Poly High Long Beach, Calif.) and Adoree' Jackson (Serra High in Gardena, Calif.), who also might long jump on the USC track team, along with Rahshead Johnson (Cabrillo High in Long Beach, Calif.) and Ajene Harris (Crenshaw High in Los Angeles, Calif.). Smith, Jackson and Johnson might also play in the secondary.

"This spring is a great opportunity for Nelson not only to up his game, but to grow into a leadership role," said Sarkisian. "Our other receivers, many of them still young, are very talented, so this spring will be an important time for them to develop. They all have a chance to be very good players."

TIGHT ENDS

USC's tight end group lost Xavier Grimble, who had 69 catches and 11 TDs in his career as a part-time starter the past 3 years (he had 25 receptions in 2013), to the NFL following his junior season.

But his equally-effective fellow co-starter the past 3 seasons returns in 2014: senior Randall Telfer (6 rec, 78 yds, 13.0 avg, 1 TD in 2013, plus 2 tac), who has 44 catches and 10 TDs while making 22 starts in his career. He was bothered by a sore knee most of 2013.

Joining him is developing junior Jalen Cope-Fitzpatrick (1 rec, 4 yds, 4.0 avg in 2013).

Then there are 4 walk-ons, including a pair from the 2013 squad—seniors Chris Willson (1 rec, 5 yds, 5.0 avg in 2013, plus 1 KOR, 7 yds, 7.0 avg), who started once last year (he also might work some at quarterback this year), and Shane Sullivan, who went out with a knee injury in 2013 (that injury likely will force him out of 2014 spring drills, too)—and 2 who joined the Trojans this spring in senior Teddy Baker, a transfer from Wesleyan who previously was at Connecticut, and sophomore Connor Spears, a Columbia transfer.

Prep All-American Bryce Dixon (St. Bonaventure High in Oxnard, Calif.) enters USC as a freshman in the fall.

"Randall is a skilled veteran, but we will limit him somewhat this spring," said Sarkisian. "That creates an opportunity for Jalen to get quality reps. Our offensive system loves to have multiple tight ends on the field. Our hope is to develop this position and, along with our use of the fullbacks, make us really unique."

OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

Offensive line replacements must be found for 2013 All-Pac-12 first team center Marcus Martin, who started the previous 2 seasons at guard and declared for the NFL following his junior season, and fellow 3-year starter Kevin Graf at tackle. Also gone is reliable guard John Martinez, who had 30 career starts (most coming prior to 2013).

Some quality linemen are returning from last season (until the coaches evaluate the players in spring practice, specific line positions haven't been assigned): junior Max Tuerk, a 2-year starter who is versatile enough to play any line position (he started at left guard most of 2013 after starting at left tackle some of 2012), senior 2-year starter Aundrey Walker, who started at right guard in 2013 until he broke his ankle late in the season (he was the starting left tackle most of 2012), and sophomore Chad Wheeler, the left tackle starter last fall. Walker likely will miss 2014 spring practice while recovering.

There are some mostly-untested linemen looking to break into the lineup or serve as key backups: senior Giovanni Di Poalo, sophomores Zach Banner (he was sidelined most of last year because of hip surgery, which could slow him in 2014 spring drills) and Jordan Simmons (a mid-season knee injury knocked him out for the rest of the 2013 schedule and he likely will sit out 2014 spring drills while he recovers) and redshirt freshmen Khaliel Rodgers and Nico Falah.

Senior walk-on Nathan Guertler played in 12 games in 2013 (starting once), primarily on special teams. Other returning walk-ons are junior Erick Jepsen and redshirt freshman Dane Stevens (he sat out 2013 with an injury).

Two freshmen linemen graduated high school a semester early and enrolled at USC this spring: prep All-American Toa Lobendahn (La Habra High in La Habra, Calif.) along with Jordan Austin (Claremont High in Claremont, Calif.).

Coming aboard as freshmen in the fall are prep All-Americans Damien Mama (St. John Bosco High in Bellflower, Calif.) and Viane Talamaivao (Centennial High in Corona, Calif.), along with Chris Brown (Loyola High in Los Angeles, Calif.).

"We have a unique blend on the offensive line, some players with a great deal of experience and some very young players," said Sarkisian. "All of our linemen, though, will be learning a new system, so our ability to teach it to them this spring will be critical. We hired Tim Drevno to coach them because of his unparalleled ability to teach."

DEFENSE

Eight defensive starters return from 2013: defensive lineman Leonard Williams, inside linebacker Hayes Pullard, cornerback-safety Josh Shaw, safety Su'a Cravens, cornerback Kevon Seymour, outside linebacker J.R. Tavai, defensive lineman Antwaun Woods and co-starting inside linebackers Lamar Dawson and Anthony Sarao. Others defensive players returning with career starts are cornerback Anthony Brown, outside linebacker Jabari Ruffin and safety Leon McQuay III.

USC's top 3 tacklers from last year, along with its leaders in tackles for loss, deflections, fumble recoveries and forced fumbles, all return in 2014. Last season, the Trojan defense showed marked improvement from 2012 and finished in the national Top 25 in 8 statistical categories: first in red zone defense (.628), 12th in third down conversion defense (.327), 13th in total defense (335.2), 14th in pass efficiency defense (111.9), 15th rushing defense (120.6), 16th in scoring defense (21.2), 18th in fourth down conversion defense (.364) and 23rd in interceptions (17). Opponents were held to 300 total yards or less in 7 of Troy's 14 games in 2013, and the Trojans also held foes to 14 points or less 7 times. USC allowed just 37 first-quarter points all season and it did not allow any second-half points in 3 games. The Trojans did this despite using 3 or fewer defensive substitutes in 6 games in 2013 because of the effects of the NCAA scholarship limitations.

Sarkisian and new defensive coordinator Justin Wilcox, whose multiple fronts will have the look at times of last season's Trojan defense, are hoping 2013's stingy defensive performances continue this season. This defense will run out of a 3-4 base with 4-3 principles applied.

"Our defense appears to be the strength of our team," said Sarkisian. "That's a great sign. But we have plenty of room to improve and grow. I like how we can evolve.

"We will play an aggressive, attacking style on defense. The ability to do that starts up front and I think our front 7 is very strong. But we must also play well on the back end of our defense."

DEFENSIVE LINEMEN

Although a key defensive lineman has departed—George Uko, who had 85 career stops (36 in 2013) as a 2-year starter before leaving after his junior season for the NFL—USC returns some equally-impressive linemen (specific line positions won't be determined until the coaches evaluate the players in spring practice).

Dominating junior Leonard Williams (74 tac, team-high 13.5 for loss, 6 sack, 1 FR, 2 FF in 2013), a 2013 All-American first teamer and Bednarik Award semifinalist, headlines the Trojans' returning defensive linemen. He might be college football's best d-lineman in 2014. The 2-year starter had a team-best 13.5 tackles for loss among his 74 total tackles as an end in 2013 (he also had 6 sacks). His participation in 2014 spring practice is doubtful as he recovers from a nagging shoulder injury.

Also returning is junior Antwaun Woods (19 tac, 2 for loss, 1 sack, 1 dfl in 2013), who recorded 19 stops last season as a starter at tackle.

Competing to break into the playing rotation is a pair of juniors who have some experience: Cody Temple, who was bothered by foot and ankle issues last fall, and Greg Townsend Jr. (he sat out last season with an ankle and knee injury). Both players could be sidelined or limited in 2014 spring practice.

Two linemen with loads of potential redshirted last year and are ready to compete for time: junior Delvon Simmons, who started at Texas Tech in 2012 but had to sit out last fall after transferring to USC, and redshirt freshman Kenny Bigelow.

Then there are a pair of walk-ons in junior Joey Augello (3 tac in 2013) and soph Jeff Miller, who missed 2013 with a back injury.

Junior Claude Pelon, a junior college All-American last year at Mesa (Ariz.) Community College, enrolled at USC this spring and looks to contribute immediately.

"The defensive line is a deep position for us," said Sarkisian. "We have a chance to be special here, but the line's development this spring will be critical. With some players limited during the spring, a great opportunity will be presented to the younger linemen to get valuable reps."

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

USC lost 2 outstanding outside linebackers, but it also returns some talent here.

Devon Kennard, a 3-year starter who had 195 career tackles (26 for losses), including 60 last season (with 13 for losses and a team-best 9 sacks) when he was a Lott Impact Trophy finalist and USC's Most Inspirational Player, and Morgan Breslin, a 2012 Hendricks Award finalist who had 17.5 career sacks but only saw action in 5 games last fall because of injuries, both have moved on.

But well-tested senior J.R. Tavai (56 tac, 8 for loss, 3.5 sack in 2013), who made 56 tackles in 2013 while starting most of last year, returns.

Also back with significant playing time on their resumes are sophomores Jabari Ruffin (22 tac, 1 for loss, 1 sack, 1 FF in 2013), who had 1 start last year, Scott Starr (9 tac, 1 dfl in 2013) and Quinton Powell (20 tac, 2 for loss, 1 sack in 2013), along with junior Charles Burks (3 tac, 1 for loss, 1 sack in 2013).

Then there is freshman Don Hill (Timberline High in Boise, Id.), who graduated a semester early from high school and enrolled at USC this spring. He likely will miss 2014 spring drills while recovering from a 2013 Achilles injury.

Entering the fray in the fall as freshmen are prep All-American Malik Dorton (St. John Bosco High in Bellflower, Calif.) along with Uchenna Nwusu (Narbonne High in Harbor City, Calif.).

"We have a lot of athleticism on the edge here," said Sarkisian. "There is experience and talent. I'm looking forward to watching this unit develop."

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

All of USC's key 2013 inside linebacking crew returns, led by senior Hayes Pullard (team-high 94 tac, 5.5 for loss, 1 int, 6 dfl in 2013). The 3-year starter, who has 282 career tackles, led the Trojans in stops in 2011 and 2013 (he had 94 tackles last year while serving as a team co-captain) after being second on the defense in 2012.

Senior Lamar Dawson (35 tac, 3.5 for loss, 1.5 sack, 2 dfl in 2013) and junior Anthony Sarao (44 tac, 2.5 for loss, 1 dfl, 1 FR, 1 FF in 2013) combined for 79 tackles in 2013 while splitting starts, with Dawson starting the first 7 games (it was his third year as a starter) before injuring his knee and having Sarao move into the lineup. Dawson likely will sit out 2014 spring practice while recovering.

Sophomore Michael Hutchings (19 tac in 2013) had a precocious 2013 showing as a backup and on special teams.

Also in the inside linebacker mix are walk-ons Nick Schlossberg, a sophomore, and Joel Foy, a redshirt freshman who transferred to USC this spring from Air Force.

Joining the inside linebacker corps in the fall as a freshman is prep All-American Olajuwon Tucker (Serra High in Gardena, Calif.).

"When I talk about our defensive front 7 being one of the strengths of the team, a lot of that is because of our linebackers," said Sarkisian. "The inside backers are solid, talented players who have lots of versatility. They have a great leader and mentor in Hayes."

DEFENSIVE BACKS

The 2013 Trojan secondary returns nearly intact. Missing are safety-linebacker Dion Bailey, who made 222 tackles and 11 interceptions as a 3-year starter (he started 8 times last year as a nickel back, getting 61 tackles and 5 picks, after playing linebacker the previous 2 years) but now has entered the NFL draft after his junior season, safety Demetrius Wright (59 tackles starting at free safety in 2013) and cornerback Torin Harris (13 career starts, including 4 last year when he had 30 tackles).

The most veteran and versatile among the returning defensive backs is cornerback-safety Josh Shaw (67 tac, 5.5 for loss, 4 int with 1 for TD, team-best 7 dfl in 2013, plus 1 PR TD), who has 119 tackles and 6 interceptions in a career split between Florida and now the past 2 seasons at USC. He had 67 stops, 4 interceptions and a team-high 7 deflections last fall while starting 11 times at corner and 3 times at free safety (he even ran back a blocked punt for a touchdown).

Sophomore Su'a Cravens (52 tac, 1.5 for loss, 4 int, 1 dfl, 1 FF, 1 FR in 2013, plus 1 KOR, 33 yds, 33.0 avg and 1 PR, 1 yd, 1.0 avg) earned Freshman All-American first team honors in 2013 while making 52 tackles and 4 interceptions at strong safety.

Junior Kevon Seymour (48 tac, 2 for loss, 1 int, 6 dfl in 2013, plus 7 KOR, 92 yds, 13.1 avg) returns after starting 2013 at cornerback and posting 48 tackles and an interception (he also returned 7 kickoffs for a 13.1 average).

Several other defensive backs are looking for an expanded role in 2014: senior cornerback Anthony Brown (9 tac in 2013), who has 6 career starts but played in just 2 games last year because of ankle injuries, sophomore safety Leon McQuay III (19 tac, 1 int, 4 dfl, 1 FF in 2013, plus 1 KOR, 3 yds, 3.0 avg), who started once last fall and got lots of time on special teams, senior safety Gerald Bowman, who suffered a shoulder injury after seeing limited action in 3 early games last season and was able to redshirt for medical reasons, soph cornerback Devian Shelton (3 tac, 2 dfl in 2013), who sustained a season-ending foot injury in the 2013 opener, junior cornerback Ryan Henderson (1 tac in 2013), who has played briefly in just 6 games in his career, and redshirt freshman cornerback Chris Hawkins. Bowman and Shelton could be limited in 2014 spring practice.

There are 5 walk-on secondary players, including a pair of sophomores who saw lots of action last year on special teams—cornerback Ryan Dillard (6 tac, 1 for loss in 2013) and safety Rob Dooley (2 tac in 2013)—and 3 who redshirted (soph cornerback Kevin

JOSH SHAW

SU'A CRAVENS

KEVON SEYMOUR

Carrasco, soph safety Adrian Johnson and redshirt freshman safety Matt Lopes).

Looking to make an impact in the secondary when they enroll in the fall as freshmen are prep All-Americans Adoree' Jackson (Serra High in Gardena, Calif.), who also might work at wide receiver and long jump on the USC track team, JuJu Smith (Poly High Long Beach, Calif.), who might also work at wide receiver, and Jonathan Lockett (Mater Dei High in Santa Ana, Calif.) along with John Plattenburg (Lamar High in Houston, Tex.), Lamont Simmons (Raines High in Jacksonville, Fla.) and Rahshead Johnson (Cabrillo High in Long Beach, Calif.), who might also play wide receiver.

"I anticipate we'll see the players in the secondary really mature this spring in all aspects of the game, especially the younger players who will take on bigger roles," said Sarkisian. "It's a great chance for them to earn playing time. Josh is their leader and serves as a great example to all of them on and off the field."

SPECIAL TEAMS

USC's placekicker (Andre Heidari), punter (Kris Albarado), long snapper (Peter McBride), short snapper (Zach Smith), holder (Cody Kessler) and top kickoff and punt returner (Nelson Agholor) all are back from 2013.

The Trojans ranked 13th nationally in punt returns (13.3) last year, as well as second in blocked punts (3) and fourth in blocked kicks (6). Troy allowed zero punt return yards in 8 of its 14 games in 2013 and held 2 other opponents to 5 yards or less. Only 16 of USC's 79 punts were returned last year. And the Trojans had 3 scoring punt returns.

But there are some areas that need to be shored up as USC was dead last nationally in kickoff returns (14.4) in 2013 and 10th from the bottom in net punting (34.5), as well as only 62nd in punt return defense (7.9).

"We have a lot of experience returning throughout our special teams," said Sarkisian. "The objective here this spring is to get them all to perform consistently at their peak capabilities."

PUNTERS

Junior Kris Albarado (37.1 avg in 2013, plus 2 tac) is back after averaging 37.1 yards per punt in his first year handling that duty. He was particularly effective pinning opponents within the 20-yard line, as he did so on 27 of his 79 punts (34.2%) and only 4 of his boots were touchbacks.

Also available to punt are a pair of walk-ons who have yet to play—redshirt freshman Jack Basalari and junior Joey Krassenstein (he previously played semi-pro rugby in China)—as well as senior placekicker Andre Heidari, who served as USC's emergency backup punter last year but was never called upon in that role.

PLACEKICKERS

Senior Andre Heidari (49-of-52 PAT, 15-of-22 FG in 2013, plus 1 tac) has been USC's placekicker the past 3 years, hitting 40 field goals in his career. He is within range of the school career records for field goals and PATs. He hit 15 of his 22 field goal attempts and all but 3 of his 52 PAT tries last year. Although he missed some key field goals in several games last fall, he nailed a game-winning 47-yarder with 19 seconds to play against No. 5 Stanford, USC's first game-winning last second field goal since 2000. He also kicked off, with 22 of his 76 kickoffs pinning foes within the 20-yard line and getting touchbacks on 19 others.

ANDRE HEIDARI

Sophomore walk-on Alex Wood redshirted last year after hitting all 8 of his PATs in 2012 when subbing for an injured Heidari.

SNAPPERS

Both of USC snappers—junior Peter McBride (1 tac in 2013), who handled the punt snaps, and walk-on sophomore Zach Smith, who snapped on all placement kicks—return from 2013 after performing flawlessly (McBride also was the snapper in 2012).

HOLDERS

Junior quarterback Cody Kessler is back after handling the holding duties all of 2013 and the last half of 2012. A backup must be developed and it could be redshirt freshman quarterback Max Browne.

RETURNERS

Junior wide receiver Nelson Agholor (18 PR, 343 yds, 19.1 avg, 2 TD in 2013, plus 10 KOR, 175 yds, 17.5 avg) is back after leading USC in both punt returns (19.1 avg) and kickoff returns (17.5 avg) in 2013. He proved to be a threat in both duties. He ranked second nationally in punt returns (19.1) last season. He tied a Pac-12 record with 2 scoring punt returns at California in 2013 (including a 93-yarder, the second longest in school history) and his 168 punt return yards in that Cal game was a USC mark.

Marqise Lee also was involved in returning kicks and punts last year, as he averaged 16.4 yards on 10 kickoff returns and 5.8 yards on 8 punt returns. Now headed to the NFL, he finished up ranked seventh on USC's career kickoff return ladder (1,305 yards).

A number of returning and new players could have a role in the return game in 2014 in Lee's place, including junior cornerback Kevon Seymour (7 KOR, 92 yds, 13.1 avg in 2013) and sophomore safety Su'a Cravens (1 KOR, 33 yds, 33.0 avg in 2013 and 1 PR, 1 yd, 1.0 avg).

2014 USC FOOTBALL PLAYER BIOGRAPHIES

(Class years are listed athletically/ academically, with "*" indicating player who has used up redshirt year.)

(15) NELSON AGHOLOR

Wide Receiver, 6-0, 185, Jr./Jr.
Tampa, FL (Berkeley Prep HS)

CAREER: He has 75 catches for 1,258 yards (16.8 avg) with 8 TDs in his career, along with 18 punt returns for 343 yards (19.1 avg) with 2 TDs and 15 kickoff returns for 296 yards (19.7 avg). He has 3 100-yard receiving games in his career. He has 1,912 all-purpose yards on 111 plays (17.2 avg) with 8 TDs in his career. He has 17 career starts.

2014: Agholor, one of college football's most exciting wide receivers and returners, looks to continue in both roles as a junior in 2014.

2013: Agholor started all year at wide receiver as a sophomore in 2013 and performed magnificiently catching passes and returning punts and kicks. Overall in 2013 while starting all 14 games, he had 56 receptions for 918 yards (16.4 avg) with 6 TDs, plus he had 18 punt returns for 343 yards (19.1 avg) with 2 TDs and 10 kickoff returns for 175 yards (17.5 avg). He also had 2 carries for 8 yards (4.0 avg) and 1 tackle. His 19.1 average on punt returns was a USC season record. He was second nationally in punt returns (19.1, first in Pac-12). He had 2 100-yard receiving games in 2013.

He made 2013 Athlon All-American second team, CollegeSportsMadness.com All-American second team, CBSSports.com All-American third team, Phil Steele All-American third team, SI.com All-American honorable mention (all as a punt returner) and CollegeFootballNews.com Sophomore All-American honorable mention (as a wide receiver). He made the 2013 All-Pac-12 second team (as a return specialist) and honorable mention (as a wide receiver), as well as ESPN.com All-Pac-12 first team, Sporting News All-Pac-12 first team, Athlon All-Pac-12 first team and Phil Steele All-Pac-12 first team (all as a punt returner), plus Phil Steele All-Pac-12 third team (as a wide receiver). He won USC's Offensive Perimeter Player of the Year Award and John McKay Award (competitive spirit).

He had 2 catches for 35 yards, with a 19-yard TD, at Hawaii, then he had a run for minus 5 yards against Washington State. He had 4 catches for 55 yards and 2 punt returns for 16 yards against Boston College, then 2 catches for 38 yards, a 15-yard kickoff return and a 13-yard rush on a reverse against Utah State. He had 3 catches for 64 yards and a 5-yard kickoff return at Arizona State. He had a then-career best and game-leading 7 receptions for 161 yards, with a 62-yard TD, and he returned a kickoff 25 yards against Arizona. He had 209 all-purpose yards at Notre Dame (6 receptions for 89 yards, 4 punt returns for 100 yards and a 20-yard kickoff return) along with a tackle (his 48-yard punt return in the second quarter that set up a Trojan field goal was USC's longest since Ronald Johnson returned one for 89 yards for a score against Hawaii in 2010 and it also was the longest against ND this year). He had a game-high 6 catches for 97 yards with a 30-yard TD against Utah. He had 2 catches for 73 yards (including a 62-yarder on the first play of the second half) and he returned 2 punts for 4 yards at Oregon State. At California, he tied a Pac-12 game record with 2 touchdowns on punt returns (75 yards the first time USC touched the ball and then 93 yards to tie the second longest punt return in USC history), sharing the record with 3 others (including USC's Mike Garrett, who did so at Cal in 1965), and his 168 punt return yards on the 2 runbacks broke Garrett's USC game mark by 6 yards (he had 215 all-purpose yards—averaging 30.7 yards per touch—as he also caught 4 passes for 35 yards and had a 12-yard kickoff return) to earn Pac-12 Special Teams Player of the Week, CBSSports.com Specialist of the Week, Hornung Award Honor Roll and College Football Performance Awards National Punter Returner and All-Purpose Performer of the Week. He had a career-high 8 catches for 104 yards and 3 punt returns for 12 yards against Stanford. He had 3 catches for 38 yards with a 20-yard TD, plus he returned a kickoff 24 yards and a punt 20 yards, at Colorado. He had 4 catches for 35 yards, 4 kickoff returns for 74 yards and 2 punt returns for 26 yards against UCLA. He had 5 catches for 94 yards with 2 TDs (40 and 17 yards) and 2 punt returns for minus 3 yards against Fresno State.

2012: Agholor served as a key backup wide receiver, returned kickoffs and played on special teams as a first-year freshman in 2012. Overall in 2012 while appearing in all 13 games (he even started against Arizona State, UCLA and Georgia Tech), he had 19 catches for 340 yards (17.9 avg.) with 2 TDs, returned 5 kickoffs for 121 yards (24.2 avg.), had a 7-yard rush and made 4 tackles and recovered a fumble. He made the 2012 Scout.com Freshman All-American second team.

He had a 6-yard catch against Hawaii, then had 3 catches for 77 yards (including a 49-yarder) and 2 tackles at Stanford. He had a 15-yard reception against California, a 19-yard kickoff return at Utah, returned 2 kickoffs for 50 yards at Washington and had 2 catches for 10 yards, a 7-yard run and returned a kickoff 37 yards against Colorado. He had a catch for minus 1 yard at Arizona, then 6 catches for a game-high 162 yards, with a 76-yard TD, plus a 15-yard kickoff return against Oregon. He had 2 catches for 22 yards and 2 tackles against Arizona State and had 3 catches for 49 yards, with a 33-yard TD, at UCLA. He had a fumble recovery on kickoff coverage against Georgia Tech.

NELSON AGHOLOR

(35) KRIS ALBARADO

Punter, 5-10, 200, Jr.*/Sr.
Lake Charles, LA (St. Louis HS)

2014: Albarado, known for his accuracy in placing punts deep in opponents' territory, returns for his second season as USC's punter as a junior in 2014.

2013: Albarado served as USC's punter as a sophomore in 2013, averaging 37.1 yards on 79 punts while appearing in all 14 games. Some 27 of his 79 punts (34.2%) pinned opponents within the 20-yard line and he booted 4 in excess of 50 yards. Only 4 of his 79 punts were touchbacks. He also had 2 tackles. He made 2013 All-Pac-12 honorable mention.

At Hawaii, he made his career debut by averaging 43.3 yards on his 6 punts, with a 64-yarder, and 4 of his punts pinned UH within the 20. Against Washington State, he averaged 40.3 yards on his 6 punts (with one pinning the Cougars within the 20). He averaged 44.0

yards on his 4 punts against Boston College, with a 55-yarder and 2 pinning the Eagles within the 20. Five of his 7 punts (he averaged 35.4 per punt) against Utah State pinned the Aggies within the 20-yard line, including 2 inside the 5, to help him earn Pac-12 Special Teams Player of the Week. He averaged 42.8 yards on his 5 punts at Arizona State (with a 54-yarder). Four of his 6 punts against Arizona pinned the Wildcats within the 20, including 3 inside the 10-yard line (2 of those were downed at the 4-yard line), as he averaged 35.7 yards per punt. He averaged 37.3 yards on his 6 punts at Notre Dame, with 3 pinning the Irish within the 20. He averaged 38.4 on 7 punts, with 2 touchbacks, against Utah and he made a tackle. At Oregon State, he averaged 36.2 yards on his 6 punts, with 2 pinning the Beavers within the 20. At California, he averaged 31.5 yards on his 4 punts. He averaged 35.3 yards on his 6 punts against Stanford, with 3 pinning the Cardinal within the 20. At Colorado, he averaged 30.2 yards on his 6 punts, with 2 pinning CU within the 20. Against UCLA, he averaged 33.5 yards on his 6 punts (with a 51-yarder), with 1 pinning the Bruins within the 20. He averaged 36.0 yards on his 4 punts against Fresno State.

2012: Albarado was the backup punter as a redshirt freshman in 2012, but did not see any action.

2011: Albarado redshirted as a freshman punter in 2011, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2010 honors included Max Preps All-American Medium Schools second team and All-State 4A as a senior punter at St. Louis High in Lake Charles (La.). He averaged 45.3 yards on his 24 punts (with a long of 65 yards) and put 8 punts within the 20-yard line in 2010.

As a junior in 2009, he averaged 41.8 yards on his 38 punts, with 19 punts within the 20.

He averaged 40.7 yards on his 37 punts (with 8 within the 20) as a sophomore in 2008.

(37) JAVORIUS ALLEN

Tailback, 6-1, 215, Jr.*/Sr.
Tallahassee, FL (Lincoln HS)

CAREER: In his career, he has 817 yards on 141 carries (5.8 avg) with 14 TDs, plus 22 receptions for 252 yards (11.5 avg) with 1 TD. He has 4 100-yard rushing games in his career. He has 4 career starts.

2014: Allen, a junior tailback in 2014, will look to improve upon his eye-opening 2013 campaign.

2013: Allen had an impressive showing as a sophomore tailback in 2013, especially in the last half of the season. Overall 2013 while appearing in all 14 games and starting the final 4 (Stanford, Colorado, UCLA, Fresno State), he ran for 785 yards on 135 carries (5.8 avg) with 14 TDs, plus he had 22 receptions for 252 yards (11.5 avg) with 1 TD and 2 tackles. He scored 13 touchdowns in the last 6 games (12 on the ground) and 4 of them were at least 43 yards. He had 4 100-yard rushing outings, all in the last 6 games (133 at Oregon State, 135 at California, 145 at Colorado and 123 versus UCLA).

He made 2013 CollegeFootballNews.com Sophomore All-American honorable mention. He made 2013 All-Pac-12 honorable mention and Phil Steele All-Pac-12 third team. He also was voted by his teammates as USC's MVP and also won the Offensive Perimeter Player of the Year as well as the Jack Oakie "Rise and Shine" Award (longest run).

He had 18 yards on 4 tries at Hawaii, then 45 yards on 8 carries against Boston College and 15 yards on 2 carries at Arizona State. He had 37 yards on 6 tries with a pair of TDs (1 and 4 yards) along with 2 catches for 6 yards and a tackle against Arizona. He had 20 yards on 7 carries at Notre Dame and 2 yards on 2 carries with a 3-yard catch against Utah. At Oregon State, he had a then-career high 133 yards on 16 carries with a career-best 3 TDs (9, 18 and 52 yards) plus he caught 4 passes for 41 yards. He averaged 22.5 yards per carry and 27.4 per touch as he ran for 135 yards on just 6 carries (the most yards ever on the road by a Trojan with 6 or fewer carries and the most anywhere since 1954) with a pair of long TDs (43 and 79 yards) and had a 57-yard TD reception at California. He ran for 26 yards on 16 carries and caught 4 passes for 58 yards against Stanford. He had a career-best 145 yards on 21 carries with 3 TDs (12, 1 and 23 yards, with a 66-yarder called back by penalty) and he caught 3 passes for 24 yards at Colorado. He had a game-high 123 yards on 20 carries, with an 11-yard TD, and he caught 3 passes for 30 yards against UCLA. He ran for a game-best 86 yards with 2 TDs (24 and 1 yards) on 27 carries and added 4 catches for 33 yards against Fresno State.

2012: Allen was a reserve tailback as a redshirt freshman in 2012. Overall in 2012 while appearing in 3 games (Syracuse, California, Colorado), he had 6 carries for 32 yards (5.3 avg.). He had 2 carries each against Syracuse (6 yards), California (12 yards) and Colorado (14 yards). He missed the Utah game because of a death in his family.

2011: Allen redshirted as a freshman tailback in 2011, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2010 honors included ESPNU150, Super Prep All-Dixie and Prep Star All-Southeast as a senior running back at Lincoln High in Tallahassee (Fla.). He ran for more than 1,500 yards in 2010. Lincoln won the 2010 Florida state Class 4A title.

He missed his 2009 junior season with an injury.

As a sophomore in 2008, he rushed for 1,044 yards on 162 carries (6.4 avg.) with 10 TDs. Lincoln played in the Florida state Class 4A championship game.

He also long jumped at Lincoln, with a best of 22-9 1/2.

PERSONAL: He is a sociology major at USC. His nickname is Buck.

(56) JORDAN AUSTIN

Offensive Line, 6-5, 275, Fr./Fr.
Claremont, CA (Claremont HS)

2014: Austin, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2014 after graduating a semester early from high school, will compete to get into the offensive line playing rotation as a first-year freshman in 2014.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made 2013 Prep Star All-West, Inland Valley Daily Bulletin All-Inland Valley first team and All-Sierra League first team as a senior offensive lineman at Claremont (Calif.) High.

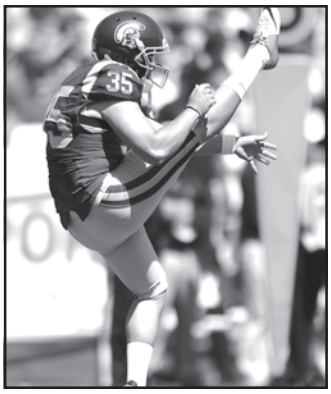
He was a 3-year starter.

PERSONAL: His father, Ray, played football at UNLV and Southern Utah.

(73) ZACH BANNER

Offensive Line, 6-9, 345, So.*/Jr.
Tacoma, WA (Lakes HS)

2014: Banner, who also played basketball at USC earlier in his career, will battle for playing time on the offensive line once he returns to health as a sophomore in 2014. He likely will see limited action during 2014 spring practice while recovering from a 2013 hip injury.



KRIS ALBARADO

JAVORIUS ALLEN

ZACH BANNER

2013: Banner played briefly as a backup offensive tackle as a redshirt freshman in 2013, appearing in 2 early-season games (Hawaii, Boston College), then was sidelined the rest of the year with an injury that required surgery on both hips.

2012: Banner redshirted as a freshman offensive tackle in 2012, his first year at USC.

BASKETBALL: He joined the 2013 USC men's basketball team after the conclusion of the 2012 football season, but did not see any action.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2011 honors included USA Today All-USA first team, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, SI.com All-American first team, Max Preps All-American second team, Max Preps All-American Medium Schools first team, Prep Star Top 150 Dream Team, ESPNU 150, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Seattle Times All-State, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Tacoma News Tribune Northwest Nuggets and Tacoma News Tribune All-Area first team as a senior offensive lineman at Lakes High in Lakewood (Wash.). He was a finalist for the 2012 Watkins Award, given to the nation's top African-American high school scholar-athlete.

As a junior in 2010, he made USA Today All-USA first team, Max Preps All-American second team, Max Preps All-American Medium Schools first team, Max Preps Junior All-American first team and All-State 3-A first team.

He also played basketball at Lakes, helping the team to the 2011 state 3A title.

PERSONAL: He is a communication major at USC.

(95) KENNY BIGELOW

Defensive Line, 6-3, 300, Fr.*/So.
Elkton, MD (Eastern Christian Academy)

2014: Bigelow will push for a starting defensive line job as a redshirt freshman in 2014.

2013: Bigelow, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2013 after graduating a semester early from high school, redshirted as a freshman defensive tackle in 2013, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: his 2012 honors included Prep Star All-American Dream Team, ESPN 150, Rivals 100 and Scout 100 as a senior defensive lineman and tight end at Eastern Christian Academy in Elkton (Md.), which played an abbreviated 3-game schedule.

As a junior in 2011 at Red Lion Christian Academy in Bear (Del.), he made ESPNHS.com Underclass All-American first team and Max Preps Junior All-American second team while posting 40 tackles and 20 sacks.

As a 2010 sophomore, he had 39 tackles, 5 sacks and 1 fumble recovery on defense (he also played linebacker) and 6 receptions for 70 yards (11.7 avg.) with 1 TD on offense. Current Trojan Khaliel Rodgers also prepped at Eastern Christian and Red Lion Christian.

(85) VICTOR BLACKWELL

Wide Receiver, 6-0, 190, Jr.*/Sr.
Cerritos, CA (Mater Dei HS)

CAREER: He has 5 catches for 58 yards (11.6 avg) in his career.

2014: Blackwell, who might also sprint for the USC track team, will compete for playing time at wide receiver as a junior in 2014.

2013: Blackwell was a reserve wide receiver as a sophomore in 2013. Overall while appearing in 7 games (Boston College, Arizona State, Arizona, California, Colorado, UCLA, Fresno State), he had 4 receptions for 49 yards (12.2 avg). He started against Arizona. He had 2 catches against both Arizona State (26 yards) and Arizona (23 yards). He suffered an ankle injury in 2013 fall camp and missed the Hawaii opener, then had another ankle injury prior to the Notre Dame game, sidelining him for that game.

2012: Blackwell was a reserve wide receiver as a redshirt freshman in 2012. Overall in 2012 while appearing in 5 games (Hawaii, Syracuse, Stanford, California, Colorado), he had 1 catch for 9 yards (9.0 avg.). That catch came in the opener against Hawaii.

2011: Blackwell redshirted as a freshman wide receiver in 2011, his first year at USC.

TRACK: He is also a sprinter on the 2014 USC track team.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2010 honors included Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, U.S. Army All-American, ESPNU 150, Sporting News Top 100, Prep Star Dream Team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Max Preps All-State Division I first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-CIF Pac-5 Division, Orange County Register All-Orange County first team and All-Trinity League Co-Offensive MVP as a senior wide receiver at Mater Dei High in Santa Ana (Calif.). He caught 50 passes for 976 yards (19.5 avg.) with 14 TDs in 2010, including 3 games with 175-plus receiving yards, despite missing part of the season with a shoulder injury.

As a junior in 2009, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass second team, All-CIF Pac-5 Division, Orange County Register All-Orange County first team and All-Trinity League Offensive MVP while catching 52 passes for 1,044 yards (20.1 avg.) with 11 TDs.

As a sophomore in 2008, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Sophomore and All-Trinity League second team.

In his career, he had 130 receptions and 33 TDs. Incoming Trojan Jonathan Lockett also prepped at Mater Dei.

He also sprinted for Mater Dei's track team, with best of 21.63 in the 200 meters and 49.16 in the 400 meters.

PERSONAL: He is a communication major at USC.

(27) GERALD BOWMAN

Safety, 5-11, 195, Sr.*/Sr.,
Philadelphia, PA (Imhotep HS/
Los Angeles Pierce JC)

2014: Bowman will battle to get into the playing rotation at safety as a senior in 2014. He likely will see limited action during 2014 spring practice while recovering from a 2013 shoulder injury.

2013: Bowman saw brief action in 3 early-season games (Hawaii, Boston College, Arizona State) as a senior safety and on special teams in 2013, but he did not make a tackle. He suffered a shoulder injury at Arizona State and was sidelined for the rest of the season. Because of the early-season injury, he was allowed to redshirt for medical reasons. He missed most of 2013 spring practice with a leg muscle injury.

2012: Bowman, who transferred to USC in the fall of 2012 from a junior college, served as a backup safety and played on special teams in 2012. Overall in 2012 while appearing in all 13 games, he had 11 tackles and an interception for 19 yards (19.0 avg.). He had 4 tackles against Colorado with the interception, 2 tackles against Hawaii and

(16) ANTHONY BROWN

Cornerback, 5-9, 180

Sr.*/Sr., Rialto, CA (Kaiser HS)

CAREER: He has 43 tackles in his career with 6 starts.

2014: Brown, who has valuable experience under his belt, will compete for playing time at cornerback as a senior in 2014.

ANTHONY BROWN

2013: Brown was limited because of injuries to seeing action in just 2 games (Hawaii, Notre Dame) at cornerback as a junior in 2013. He suffered an ankle injury against Hawaii and was sidelined the next 4 games (Washington State, Boston College, Utah State, Arizona State), then had another ankle injury at Notre Dame and was sidelined the rest of the season. Overall in 2013 while starting those 2 games, he had 9 tackles. He had 2 tackles at Hawaii and 9 at Notre Dame.

2012: Brown started USC's first 2 games (Hawaii, Syracuse) at cornerback as a sophomore in 2012, then served as a backup and played on special teams. Overall in 2012 while appearing in 12 games (all but Utah), he made 18 tackles and 2 deflections. He also blocked a punt at Washington and returned it 21 yards for a TD. He had 6 tackles against Hawaii (with a deflection), 5 versus Syracuse, 3 against Colorado, 2 versus Notre Dame and 1 against Arizona (with a deflection) and Georgia Tech.

2011: Brown began his 2011 redshirt freshman season as a backup cornerback, but emerged as the starter for 2 mid-season games before breaking his left ankle and having surgery, sidelining him for the final 6 games. Overall in 2011 while appearing in 4 games (Syracuse and Arizona State as a backup and Arizona and California while starting for an injured Torin Harris), he had 16 tackles, including 1 for a loss. He had 10 tackles against Arizona and 2 each against Syracuse, Arizona State and California.

2010: Brown redshirted as a freshman cornerback in 2010, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2009 honors included Prep Star All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Max Preps All-State Division I first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State third team, All-CIF Eastern Division first team, Riverside Press-Enterprise All-Riverside second team and Inland Valley Daily Bulletin All-Inland Valley MVP as a senior running back and defensive back at Kaiser High in Fontana (Calif.). CAREER: In his career, he has 5 catches for 49 yards (9.8 avg.), 5 carries for 15 yards (3.0 avg.), 3 kickoff returns for 59 yards (19.7 avg.) and 2 tackles.

2014: The speedy Farmer will look to make an impact at wide receiver as a junior in 2014 once he is fully recovered form a 2013 knee injury.

2013: Farmer was set to compete for a starting wide receiver job as a junior in 2013, but he tore ligaments in his left knee in 2013 and had surgery, so he redshirted the 2013 season.

2012: Farmer was a backup wide receiver as a sophomore in 2012. He appeared in 9 games (all but Stanford, California, UCLA) in 2012. He had a 7-yard catch against Hawaii. He was injured in the Syracuse game and missed the next 2 games (Stanford and California).

2011: Farmer began his 2011 freshman season, his first year at USC, as a backup wide receiver, then moved to backup tailback midseason. He also played on special teams, including returning kickoffs. Overall in 2011 while appearing in 4 games (California, Notre Dame, Oregon, UCLA), he ran for 15 yards on 5 carries (3.0 avg.), caught 4 passes for 42 yards (10.5 avg.), returned 3 kickoffs for 59 yards (19.7 avg.) and had 2 tackles. At California, he ran for 4 yards on 4 carries, caught a 14-yard pass, returned 2 kcikoffs for 38 yards and had 2 tackles. At Notre Dame, he had an 11-yard run, a 9-yard reception and a 21-yard kickoff return. He also caught a pass against Oregon (14 yards) and UCLA (5 yards). He sprained his left ankle in practice prior to the Stanford game and missed Stanford and Colorado games.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2010 honors included Parade All-American, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Max Preps All-American first team, U.S. Army All-American, Max Preps All-American Medium Schools first team, ESPNU 150, Sporting News Top 100, Rivals 100, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Dream Team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, SectionSports.com All-State first team, Max Preps All-State Division II first team, All-CIF Western Division Offensive MVP, SectionSports.com All-Southern Section first team, Los Angeles Times All-Star, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay Player of the Year and All-Mission League MVP as a senior wide receiver and defensive back at Serra High in Gardena (Calif.). He had 65 receptions for 1,514 yards (23.3 avg.) with 14 TDs, ran for 2 more TDs, had 5 TDs on kick/punt returns and intercepted 3 passes in 2010. Serra went 14-1 in 2010, won the CIF Western Division title and played in the California state Division II championship game.

As a junior in 2009, he was Cal-Hi Sports All-State Medium Schools first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team,

GEORGE FARMER

(48) ANDRE HEIDARI

Placekicker, 5-10, 210, Sr./Sr.
Bakersfield, CA (Stockdale HS)

CAREER: He has hit 40-of-55 field goals and 138-of-143 PATs in his career. He is within range of the USC career records for field goals and PATs.

2014: Heidari returns for his fourth season as USC's placekicker as a senior in 2014.

2013: Heidari was USC's placekicker for a third season as a junior in 2013 (he also served as the emergency punter, but was not called upon in that role). Overall in 2013 while appearing in all 14 games, he hit 15-of-22 field goals and 49-of-52 PATs, plus he had 1 tackle. Of his 76 kickoffs in 2013, 22 pinned opponents within the 20-yard line and 19 were touchbacks.

At Hawaii, he hit all 3 of his field goals (20 yards, a career-long 52 yards at the halftime gun to tie the fourth longest by a Trojan ever and the longest since Quin Rodriguez's 54-yarder in 1990 against Michigan State and 22 yards) and all 3 PATs and 4 of his 6 kickoffs pinned the Rainbow Warriors within the 20. Against Washington State, he hit his PAT but had a field goal blocked and missed another (and 1 of his 2 kickoffs was a touchback). He hit all 5 of his PATs against Boston College and 2 of his 5 kickoffs pinned BC within the 20 (2 others were touchbacks). He hit both of his PATs and 1 of his 2 field goal tries (a 25-yarder that proved to be the decisive points) against Utah State and he also had 2 touchbacks on his 4 kickoffs and another pinned USU within the 20. He hit 5 of his 6 PATs at Arizona State and 1 of his 6 kickoffs was a touchback (another was an onside kick recovered by USC). He hit a 45-yard field goal and all 5 of his PATs against Arizona, plus 3 of his 7 kickoffs pinned the Wildcats within the 20 (he also had a touchback). He hit a 22-yard field goal (he missed 2 others) and a PAT at Notre Dame and 1 of his 3 kickoffs was a touchback. He bounced back from a pair of misses the previous week and the possibility of losing his job by hitting a career-best 4 field goals (35, 38, 28 and 40 yards) in 5 tries against Utah, adding a PAT and kicking off 5 times (1 pinned the Utes within the 20 and another was a touchback. At Oregon State, he hit a 34-yard field goal and all 4 of his PATs, plus 1 of his 6 kickoffs pinned the Beavers within the 20. At California, he hit 8-of-9 PATs (he missed a field goal) and 4 of his 10 kickoffs pinned the Bears within the 20 (and he had 5 touchbacks). He hit a game-winning 47-yard field goal with 19 seconds to play—USC's first game-winning last second field goal since David Bell did so at UCLA in 2000—against Stanford (he also hit a 23-yarder, but missed his PAT try) and 1 of his 5 kickoffs pinned the Cardinal within the 20 (he also had a touchback) to earn Pac-12 Special Teams Player of the Week honors. At Colorado, he hit a 39-yard field goal and all 6 of his PATs, plus 2 of his 8 kickoffs pinned the Buffaloes within the 20 (he also had 3 touchbacks). Against UCLA, he hit both of his PATs and kicked off 3 times. Against Fresno State, he hit a 39-yard field goal and all 6 of his PATS, and 3 of his 6 kickoffs pinned the Bulldogs within the 20 (he also had a touchback).

2012: Heidari was USC's placekicker for his second year as a sophomore in 2012 and also spent part of the year handling kickoffs. Overall in 2012 while appearing in 11 games (all but Syracuse and Stanford), he hit 10-of-16 field goals and 39-of-41 PATs. Of his 41 kickoffs in 2012, 13 were touchbacks and 12 others pinned opponents within the 20-yard line. He made 2012 All-Pac-12 honorable mention.

Against Hawaii, he hit a 28-yard field goal, all 4 of his PATs and his kickoff pinned the Warriors within the 20, but he hurt his knee against Hawaii and had arthroscopic surgery, which sidelined him the next 2 games (Syracuse and Stanford). He returned against California and nailed both of his field goals (40 and 41 yards) and all 3 of his PATs. At Utah, he hit all 5 of his PATs and a 32-yard field goal (but missed from 40 and 44 yards) and also kicked off twice (both pinned the Utes within the 20). He hit all 3 of his PATs and was 1-of-2 on field goals (making a 23-yarder) at Washington. Against Colorado, he hit a 37-yard field goal and 5 of his 6 PATs as well as kicking off 5 times (pinning CU within the 20 once and getting 2 touchbacks). He hit all 4 of his PATs and had touchbacks on 5 of his 6 kickoffs at Arizona. Against Oregon, he hit a 39-yard field goal and all 6 of his PATs and 4 of his 9 kickoffs were touchbacks (another 2 pinned the Ducks within the 20. Against Arizona State, he hit all 5 of his PATs and a 26-yard field goal and had a touchback among his 7 kickoffs (another pinned the Sun Devils within the 20). At UCLA, he hit 2-of-3 PATS but missed both of his field goals (1 was blocked) and 3 of his 5 kickoffs pinned the Bruins within the 20. Against Notre Dame, he hit both of his field goal attempts (39 and 21 yards), his PAT and 1 of his 4 kickoffs pinned the Irish within the 20. Against Georgia Tech, he hit a PAT but missed a 38-yard field goal and 1 of his 2 kickoffs pinned the Yellow Jackets within the 20, while the other was a touchback.

2011: Heidari, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2011 after graduating a semester early from high school, stepped in as USC's placekicker as a freshman in 2011 and did an outstanding job. Overall while appearing in all 12 games, he hit 15-of 17 field goals and all 50 of his PAT tries, plus he made 4 tackles. His 88.2% field goal percentage was third in the nation among kickers with at least 10 made field goals (and the best among freshmen kickers). He made 9 consecutive field goals before a miss at Notre Dame and was 4-of-5 on field goals of at least 40 yards in 2011 (with a 50-yarder). Of his 76 kickoffs in 2011, 25 pinned opponents within the 20-yard line (including 10 touchbacks). He was one of 20 semifinalists for the 2011 Groza Award. He made the 2011 CBSSports.com, CollegeFootball News.com and Phil Steele Freshman All-American first team and YahooSports.com Freshman All-American second team. He made 2011 SI.com All-American honorable mention. He made the 2011 All-Pac-12 first team. He made the 2011 ESPN.com, CBSSports.com and Phil Steele All-Pac-12 first team.

He hit his only PAT attempt against Minnesota, then hit a 47-yard field goal (he had another 47-yarder negated by penalty) and both of his PATs against Utah. Against Syracuse, he hit all 5 of his PATs, was 1-of-2 on field goals (he made a 26-yarder) and 3 of his 7 kickoffs pinned the Orange within the 20. At Arizona State, he hit all 3 of his field goals (41, 29 and 33 yards) and his only PAT and he also pinned the Sun Devils within the 20 on 3 of his 6 kickoffs (with 2 touchbacks). Against Arizona, he hit both of his field goal tries (46 and 31 yards) and all 6 of his PATs and also pinned the Wildcats within the 20 on 3 of his 8 kickoffs (with 2 touchbacks). At California, he hit all 3 of his field goals (39, 29 and 23 yards) and all 3 of his PATs and also pinned the Bears twice within the 20 (with a touchback) on his 7 kickoffs. At Notre Dame, he hit all 4 of his PATs, made a 25-yard field goal (he missed a 32-yarder despite kicking with a bruised ankle) and 1 of his 4 kickoffs pinned the Irish within the 20. Against Stanford, he hit both of his field goals (22 and 50 yards, the longest by a Trojan since Quin Rodriguez's 54-yarder against Michigan State in the 1990 Sun Bowl) and all 6 of his PATs, plus 2 of his 7 kickoffs pinned the Cardinal within the 20. At Colorado, he hit all 6 of his PATs and 4 of his 7 kickoffs pinned the Buffaloes within the 20 (with 2 touchbacks). Against Washington, he hit all 5 of his PATs and a 30-yard field goal and 2 of his 7 kickoffs pinned the Huskies within the 20. He hit his only field goal try (a 26-yarder) and all 5 of his PATS, plus 1 of his 7 kickoffs was a touchback and he made a tackle at Oregon. Against UCLA, he hit all 6 of his PATs and 4 of his 8 kickoffs pinned the Bruins within the 20 (with 2 touchbacks).

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2010 honors included UnderArmour All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100 and Cal-Hi Sports All-State third team as a 2010 senior placekicker and punter at Stockdale High in Bakersfield (Calif.). He kicked 8 field goals and 17 PATS, had touchbacks on 53 of his 65 kickoffs and averaged 38.4 yards punting in 2010.

As a 2009 junior, 59 of his 70 kickoffs were touchbacks and 20 of his punts pinned opponents within the 20-yard line (with a long of 63 yards) as he made the All-Southwest Yosemite League second team.

He hit 81.0% of his passes (17-of-21) for 247 yards with a TD (71 yards) and an interception at Oregon State. He hit 82.3% of his passes (14-of-17) for 170 yards and 2 TDs (12 and 57 yards) at California while playing until midway through the third quarter. He was 25-of-37 (67.6%), a season best for completions and attempts, for 288 yards with a short TD toss against Stanford to earn Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Week honors. He was 19-of-28 for 184 yards with a pair of TDs (20 and 10 yards) in 3 quarters of work at Colorado. He was 17-of-28 for 174 yards with a 22-yard TD against UCLA. He threw a career-best and Las Vegas Bowl-record 4 touchdowns while hitting 73.3% of his passes (22-of-30) for a career-best 345 yards against Fresno State to win Las Vegas Bowl MVP honors.

2012: Kessler was a backup quarterback as a redshirt freshman in 2012 and also was the holder on all placekicks (beginning with the Utah game). Overall in 2012 while appearing in 10 games (all but Syracuse, Stanford, California), he was 2-of-2 (100.0%) for 9 yards. In his only 2 games seeing action at quarterback, he took the game's final snap against Hawaii and hit both of his passes for 9 yards late in the Colorado game.

2011: Kessler, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2011 after graduating a semester early from high school, redshirted as a freshman quarterback in 2011, his first year at USC. He served as the backup quarterback.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2010 honors included Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, U.S. Army All-American, USA Today All-USA second team, Rivals 100, Prep Star Dream Team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Orange County Register Fab 15 second team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Gatorade California Player of the Year, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Max Preps All-State Division I first team, Bakersfield California All-Bakersfield Player of the Year and All-

TY ISAAC

CODY KESSLER

Yosemite League Offensive MVP as a senior quarterback at Centennial High in Bakersfield (Calif.). He completed 175-of-251 (69.7%) of his passes for 2,831 yards and 36 TDs with just 2 interceptions in 2010 and rushed for 324 yards on 75 carries (4.3 avg.) with 8 TDs. He also averaged 36.4 yards on 32 punts in 2010, with a 13 pinning opponents within the 20-yard line and a long of 60 yards. Centennial was 10-2 in 2010.

As a 2009 junior, he was named Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team and Bakersfield Californian Area Player of the Year as he completed 188-of-312 passes (60.3%) for 2,195 yards with 14 TDs and 6 interceptions and also ran for 12 TDs. Centennial was the 2009 CIF Central Section runnerup.

As a sophomore in 2008, he completed 133-of-288 passes (63.6%) for 1,878 yards with 10 TDs and 7 interceptions and he also ran for 373 yards with 13 TDs.

He also played basketball at Centennial, where he averaged 29.5 points, 11 rebounds and 5 assists and was named the Bakersfield Area Player of the Year (becoming the first player to be so honored in both football and basketball).

PERSONAL: He is a sociology major at USC. He and 15 of his USC teammates spent 5 days in Haiti in the spring of 2012 building homes and assisting those in need.

(55) TOA LOBENDAHN

Offensive Line, 6-3, 290, Fr./Fr.
La Habra, CA (La Habra HS)

2014: Lobendahn, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2014 after graduating a semester early from high school, will compete to get into the offensive line playing rotation as a first-year freshman in 2014.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made the 2013 Prep Star All-American, ESPN 300, Max Preps All-American Medium Schools second team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Max Preps All-State Division II first team, All-CIF Southwest Division, Orange County Register Fab 15 second team, Orange County Register All-Orange County first team, Whittier News All-Area and All-Freeway League Lineman of the Year as a senior offensive and defensive lineman at La Habra (Calif.) High.

As a 2012 junior at Lakewood (Calif.) High, he made the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Junior first team.

(23) TRE MADDEN

Tailback, 6-1, 220, Jr.*/Sr.
Aliso Viejo, CA (Mission Viejo HS)

2014: Madden, who got off to a great start in 2013, will look to revert to that form as a junior tailback in 2014.

2013: Madden, who missed 2012 with a knee injury, got off to a hot start in 2013 at tailback as a sophomore before hamstring injuries slowed him down a bit. Overall in 2013 while appearing in 11 games (all but Notre Dame, California and Fresno State) and starting the first 6 games, he ran for 703 yards on 138 carries (5.1 avg) with 3 TDs, and he added 15 receptions for 201 yards (13.4 avg) with 4 TDs. He also threw an interception on his only pass attempt. He suffered a hamstring injury against Arizona and missed the Notre Dame game, then he reinjured his hamstring at Oregon State and missed the California game. He had 4 100-yard rushing outings in 2013. He was the first Trojan to open a season with 3 consecutive 100-yard rushing games since Marcus Allen had 11 straight to open his 1981 Heisman Trophy season. Besides he and Allen (who also did so in the first 9 games in 1980), the only other Trojans to open a season with 3 consecutive 100-yard rushing games were Charles White (first 3 in 1978), Ricky Bell (first 5 in 1976), O.J. Simpson (first 5 in 1968), Mike Garrett (first 5 in 1965) and Don Williams (first 3 in 1928). The last Trojan with 3 consecutive 100-yard rushing games was Reggie Bush in 2005 (5 in a row, games 2 to 6), but those stats were later vacated due to NCAA penalty; revised: LenDale White (3 in a row in 2005, games 3 to 5). His 4 receiving touchdowns were the most by a Trojan running back since fullback Stanley Havili had 5 in 2007 and the most by a USC tailback since Reggie Bush had 7 in 2004. He made 2013 CollegeFootballNews.com Sophomore All-American honorable mention. He sat out 2013 spring drills while recuperating from the 2012 knee injury.

He made his first career start at tailback and responded with 109 yards on 18 carries (he also caught a 10-yard pass) at Hawaii. He rushed for 151 yards on 32 carries against Washington State to become the first Trojan to open a season with back-to-back 100-yard rushing outings since Marcus Allen did so in his 1981 Heisman Trophy campaign (his 32 carries were the most by a Trojan since Sultan McCullough had 39 against California in 2001). He ran for 102 yards on 16 carries against Boston College (the first Trojan to open a season with 3 consecutive 100-yard games since Marcus Allen in 1981) and scored touchdowns on a 30-yard run and 5-yard reception. He had his 100-yard rushing streak snapped against Utah State, as he ran for 93 yards on 24 carries (with a short TD) and he also got 3 passes for 15 yards. He had a game-high 128 rushing yards on 20 carries (with a 24-yard TD) and caught 3 passes for 64 yards with 2 TDs (10 and 48 yards) at Arizona State (he also threw an interception out of the Wildcat formation). Against Arizona, he had 28 yards on 5 carries and caught a 63-yard TD before being sidelined with a hamstring injury in the second half. He returned to action against Utah and had a game-high 60 yards on 12 carries and a 3-yard catch. He had a carry for no yards at Oregon State. He had 11 yards on 6 carries and he caught a pass for 0 yards against Stanford. He had a 6-yard run at Colorado. He had 15 yards on 3 carries against UCLA.

2012: Madden, who was switched from linebacker to tailback in 2012 spring practice and looked impressive, was on track to be a key contributor as a sophomore in 2012 before a torn left knee ligament sidelined him for the 2012 season and allowed him to redshirt.

2011: Madden served as a backup strongside linebacker and played on special teams as a freshman in 2011, his first year at USC. Overall in 2011 while appearing in all 12 games (he started at strongside linebacker at Colorado), he had 15 tackles, including 1 for a loss. He had 3 tackles against Washington and 2 each against Minnesota, Arizona, Notre Dame and Oregon.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2010 honors included Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, U.S. Army All-American, USA Today All-USA second team, Rivals 100, Prep Star Dream Team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Orange County Register Fab 15 second team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Max Preps All-State Division I first team, SectionSports.com All-State first team, All-CIF Pac-5 Division, SectionSports.com All-Southern Section first team, Los Angeles Times All-Star, Orange County Register All-Orange County first team and All-South Coast League Defensive MVP as a senior linebacker and Wildcat quarterback at Mission Viejo (Calif.) High. Despite missing 4 games with a foot injury in 2010, he had 81 tackles, with 3 sacks, and an interception on defense, while he completed 13-of-26 passes (50.0%) for 311 yards and 2 TDs and ran for 310 yards with 7 TDs on offense. Mission Viejo was a 2010 CIF Pac-5 Division finalist.

As a junior in 2009, he made Max Preps All-State Division I first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team, All-CIF Pac-5 Division, Los Angeles Times All-Star, Orange County Register All-Orange County first team and All-South Coast League Defensive MVP. He had 115 tackles on defense, plus ran for 222 yards and completed 5-of-7 passes (71.4%) on offense in 2009. Current Trojans Jahleel Pinner and Alex Bridgford also prepped at Mission Viejo.

PERSONAL: He's a communication major at USC. His real first name is Curtis. His father, Curtis, was a fullback and defensive end at Kansas State (1988-91). His grandfather is Lawrence McCutcheon, a Colorado State and NFL All-Pro running back with the Los Angeles Rams (1972-79), Denver Broncos (1980) and Buffalo Bills (1981) who set the since-broken Rams career rushing record (6,186 yards), led the Rams in rushing 5 times and played in Super Bowl XIV (he then was a scout and now is a scout with the Rams). His uncle is former USC (1995-98) cornerback Daylon McCutcheon (a 2-time All-Pac-10 pick) who played with the Cleveland Browns (1999-2006). He was born in Texas.

(61) PETER McBRIDE

Snapper, 6-1, 215, Jr.*/Sr.
Scottsdale, AZ (Chaparral HS)

CAREER: He has 2 tackles in his career.

2014: McBride will battle to hold down his job as USC's punt snapper as a junior in 2014.

2013: McBride spent his second season as USC's punt snapper as a sophomore in 2013. He had 1 tackle (against Washington State) while appearing in 13 games (all but Fresno State).

2012: McBride was the starting snapper job as a redshirt freshman in 2012. He snapped for both punts and placekicks until late in the season when he handled just the punt snaps. Overall in 2012 while appearing in all 13 games, he had 1 tackle (against California).

2011: McBride, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2011 after graduating a semester early from high school, redshirted as a freshman snapper in 2011, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2010 honors included UnderArmour All-American, Prep Star All-West and 5A Desert Valley All-Region first team as a long snapper and defensive lineman at Chaparral High in Paradise Valley (Ariz.). Chaparral won the 2010 5A Division II state championship.

PERSONAL: He is an environmental studies major at USC.

(22) LEON McQUAY III

Safety, 6-1, 190, So./So.
Seffner, FL (Armwood HS)

2014: McQuay will compete for a starting safety role as a sophomore in 2014.

2013: McQuay, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2013 after graduating a semester early from high school, saw action at strong safety and on special teams as a first-year freshman in 2013. Overall in 2013 while appearing in all 14 games (he even started at Oregon State), he had 19 tackles, 1 interception for 2 yards (2.0 avg), 4 deflections and 1 forced fumble, plus he returned a kickoff for 3 yards (3.0 avg).

He had 1 tackle and a forced fumble against Washington State, a tackle and Notre Dame and 3 tackles, an interception and a deflection while playing often as the nickel back against Utah. He had 6 tackles and 2 deflections while starting at Oregon State, then 5 tackles and a deflection at California. He had 1 tackle and returned a kickoff 3 yards at Colorado, then added a tackle each against UCLA and Fresno State.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2012 honors included Parade All-American, Prep Star All-American Dream Team, USA Today All-USA second team, Max Preps All-American second team, ESPN 150, Rivals 100, Scout 100, AP All-State 6A and Tampa Tribune All-Hillsborough County first team as a senior safety and wide receiver at Armwood High in Seffner (Fla.). He had 54 tackles, 5 interceptions, 1 forced fumble and 1 blocked field goal on defense in 2012 and 5 receptions for 137 yards (27.4 avg.) with 1 TD on defense. He is among 5 finalists for the 2012-13 Franklin D. Watkins Memorial Award, presented to the nation's top African-American male high school scholar athlete.

As a 2011 junior, he made USA Today All-USA first team and Max Preps Junior All-American second team while getting 59 tackles, 3 interceptions, 9 deflections, 1 fumble recovery and 1 forced fumble.

As a 2010 sophomore, he made Max Preps Sophomore All-American second team and Tampa Tribune All-Hillsborough County first team while getting 57 tackles, 5 interceptions and 8 deflections.

PERSONAL: He is a music industry major at USC. He has produced his own music tracks. His grandfather, the late Leon McQuay, was a running back at Tampa (1968-70) and then in the CFL (Toronto, Calgary) and NFL (Giants, Patriots, Saints).

(7) STEVEN MITCHELL

Wide Receiver, 5-10, 180, Fr.*/So.
Pasadena, CA (Bishop Alemany HS)

2014: The fleet Mitchell will look to make an impact at wide receiver as a redshirt freshman in 2014 once he is fully recovered form a 2013 knee injury. He likely will see limited action during 2014 spring practice while recovering from that injury.

2013: Mitchell redshirted as a freshman wide receiver in 2013, his first year at USC, after tearing ligaments in his right knee in the summer of 2013.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2012 honors included Prep Star All-American Dream Team, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, ESPN 150, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Max Preps All-State Division I first team, All-CIF Pac-5, Los Angeles Times All-Area, Los Angeles Daily News All-Area first team and All-Serra League Co-MVP as a senior wide receiver and defensive back at Bishop Alemany High in Mission Hills (Calif.). He had 62 receptions for 1,100 yards (17.7 avg.) with 13 TDs, plus he ran for 202 yards with 5 TDs in 2012.

As a 2011 junior, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team and Los Angeles Daily News All-Area first team while catching 50 passes for 1,006 yards (20.1 avg.), running for 312 yards and scoring 19 TDs (11 receiving, 5 rushing, 1 kickoff return, 1 punt return and 1 interception).

As a 2010 sophomore, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Sophomore first team and Los Angeles Daily News All-Area Newcomer of the Year.

(30) D.J. MORGAN

Tailback, 5-10, 190, Sr.*/Sr.,
Pacoima, CA (Taft HS)

CAREER: He has 364 yards on 83 carries (4.4 avg.) with 1 TD in his career, along with 1 reception for 24 yards (24.0 avg.) and 1 TD. He has 2 career starts.

2014: The swift Morgan, who also has competed on USC's track team earlier in his career, will attempt to regain his form at tailback as a senior after missing the 2013 season with a knee injury. He likely will sit out 2014 spring practice while recovering from that injury.

2013: Morgan was set to battle for playing time at tailback as a junior in 2013, but he suffered a knee injury in 2013 fall camp and sat out the 2013 season.

2012: Morgan was a backup tailback as a sophomore in 2012. Overall in 2012 while appearing in 7 games (all but Syracuse, Stanford, California, Oregon, Notre Dame), he had 201 yards on 41 carries (4.9 avg.) with 1 TD, plus a 24-yard TD catch. He had arthroscopic surgery on his knee prior to the Syracuse game and missed 3 games (Syracuse, Stanford, California) while recuperating. He then sprained his ankle at Arizona and missed the Oregon game.

He had 25 yards on 7 carries against Hawaii, 46 yards on 9 tries at Utah and 52 yards on 10 carries and caught a 24-yard TD against Colorado. He had 63 yards on 9 carries with a 3-yard TD at Arizona, then had 9 yards on 4 carries against Arizona State and 6 yards on 2 carries at UCLA.

2011: Morgan started USC's first 2 games at tailback as a redshirt freshman in 2011 and then served as a backup. Overall in 2011 while appearing in 10 games (all but Arizona State and Oregon), he had 42 carries for 163 yards (3.9 avg.) and also made 2 tackles on special teams.

He had a game-best 70 rushing yards on 18 carries against Minnesota while becoming the first USC freshman tailback to start an opener since C.J. Gable in 2006. He added 27 yards on 8 tries and he had a tackle against Utah, then he lost 2 yards on his only carry (a lost fumble) against Syracuse. He had 5 yards on 3 rushes against Arizona and then a 3-yard run and a tackle at California. He had 56 yards on 9 rushes at Colorado and 4 yards on 2 rushes against Washington.

LEON McQUAY III

2010: Morgan redshirted as a freshman tailback in 2010, his first year at USC. He won USC's Service Team Offensive Player of the Year Award.

TRACK: He has been a hurdler on USC's track team. He did not compete in 2013. In 2012, in his first track competition since injuring his knee in football in his 2009 junior season in high school, he had a USC season best of 14.21 to place fifth in the 110-meter high hurdles at the Pac-12 Championships (he also ran 14.48 in the Pac-12 prelims) and he went a non-advancing 14.37 in a heat at the NCAA West Preliminary Rounds. He joined with fellow footballers Nickell Robey, Marqise Lee and Tony Burnett on a sprint relay quartet that ran 41.05 for third place at the 2012 Rossi Relays.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2009 honors included Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Sporting News Top 100, Prep Star Dream Team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-L.A. City first team, All-L.A. City Division I Offensive Player of the Year and Los Angeles Daily News All-Area first team as a senior running back and linebacker at Taft High in Woodland Hills (Calif.). He had 1,453 yards on 157 carries (9.3 avg.) with 23 TDs, caught 23 passes for 251 yards (10.9 avg.) with 2 TDs and threw a touchdown pass on offense and made 39 tackles (with 3 sacks), 2 interceptions and 2 forced fumbles on defense despite tearing a knee ligament late in the 2009 season.

As a junior in 2008, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team, All-L.A. City, Los Angeles Daily News All-Area first team and All-West Valley League MVP. He had 1,841 yards on 212 carries (8.8 avg.) with 26 TDs and caught 32 passes for 583 yards (18.2 avg.) with 7 TDs in 2008.

As a sophomore in 2007, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Sophomore first team and All-L.A. City first team. He ran for 1,185 yards with 10 TDs and caught 21 passes for 235 yards (111.2 avg.) with 3 TDs in 2007. Current Trojan Antwaun Woods also prepped at Taft.

He also was on Taft's track team, where he won the 2009 California state 110-meter high hurdles title and placed second in the 300-meter intermediate hurdles as a junior. He also won the 2009 L.A. City 110-meter high hurdles title. In the summer of 2009, he won the 110-meter high hurdles at the IAAF World Youth Championships in Italy in 13.28 (the No. 5 all-time performance) in his under-17 age group. As a sophomore, he won the 2008 L.A. City titles in the 100 meters, 110-meter high hurdles and 300-meter intermediate hurdles. He had bests of 10.6 in the 100, 21.8 in the 200, 37.6 in the 300 hurdles and 22-9 in the long jump.

PERSONAL: He is a sociology major at USC. His initials stand for Dale Jr.

(90) CLAUDE PELON

Defensive Line, 6-4, 295, Jr.*/Sr.
Orlando, FL
(Agape Christian Academy/Mesa CC)

2014: Pelon, who transferred to USC from a junior college in the spring of 2014, will push for a starting defensive line job as a junior in 2014.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: He made 2013 Prep Star JUCO All-American and All-Western States Football League second team as a 2013 sophomore defensive lineman at Mesa (Ariz.) Community College. He had 52 tackles, including 9.5 for losses, plus 2 forced fumbles and a fumble recovery in 2013.

He spent his 2012 freshman season at Eastern Arizona Junior College in Thatcher (Ariz.), where he had 17 tackles with 2 sacks.

He redshirted in 2011 while at Coffeyville (Kan.) Community College.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Agape Christian Academy in Orlando (Fla.), where he earned All-Conference honors as a 2010 senior while posting 68 tackles with 9 sacks. He also had 3 receptions on offense.

He also was on the basketball and track teams at Agape Christian.

PERSONAL: His full first name is Claudeson.

(38) JAHLEEL PINNER

Fullback, 5-11, 240, Jr./Jr.
Rancho Santa Margarita, CA
(Mission Viejo HS)

2014: Pinner returns as an experienced fullback as a junior in 2014.

2013: Pinner was an often-used fullback and played on special teams as a sophomore in 2013. Overall in 2013 while appearing in all 14 games and starting 5 times (Hawaii, Boston College, Utah State, Oregon State, Colorado), he had 7 receptions for 33 yards (4.7 avg) and he returned a kickoff for 1 yard (1.0 avg). He had a catch for 5 yards at Hawaii, then had an 11-yard reception against Boston College, 2 receptions for 6 yards at Arizona State, a 3-yard catch at Notre Dame and a 4-yard catch at Oregon State. He had a 1-yard kickoff return at California, then caught a 4-yard pass at Colorado.

2012: Pinner was a backup fullback and played on special teams as a first-year freshman in 2012. Overall in 2012 while appearing in all 13 games (he even started against Oregon), he did not carry or catch the ball, but he had 1 tackle (against Syracuse).

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2011 honors included Prep Star All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100 and All-CIF Pac-5 Division as a senior running back at Mission Viejo (Calif.) High. He had 113 carries for 559 yards (5.0 avg.) with 13 TDs and had 20 receptions for 258 yards (12.9 avg.) with 3 TDs.

As a junior in 2010, he ran for 1,004 yards with 14 TDs and had 9 receptions for 111 yards (12.3 avg.) as he made Orange County Register All-Orange County third team and All-South Coast League first team.

He also was on the track team at Mission Viejo, with a best of 49-5 in the shot put as a senior. Current Trojans Tre Madden and Alex Bridgford also prepped at Mission Viejo.

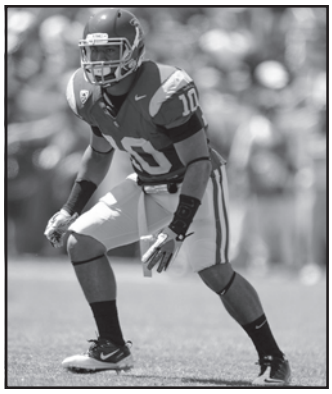
Against Georgia Tech, he had a game-best 16 tackles (the most by a Trojan since Troy Polamalu's 20 against Utah in 2001), including 1.5 for losses.

2011: Pullard, who had an eye-opening showing in 2011 spring practice, continued his impressive play while starting all of his 2011 redshirt freshman season at weakside linebacker. Overall in 2011 while starting all 12 games, he tied for the team lead in tackles with 81, including 6.5 for losses (with 4 sacks), plus he had 2 deflections and 2 forced fumbles. He and fellow linebacker Dion Bailey were the first freshmen to lead USC in tackles since records were first kept in 1954. He made 2011 All-Pac-12 honorable mention. He made the 2011 CollegeFootballNews.com Freshman All-American first team and YahooSports.com and Phil Steele Freshman All-American second team. He won USC's 2011 Bob Chandler Award.

He had a team-high 8 tackles (with 1.5 for losses, including 0.5 sack) against Minnesota, then a team-best 8 tackles, including a sack, and a deflection against Utah. He had 7 tackles (1 for a loss) against Syracuse, 1 tackles at Arizona State, 5 tackles against Arizona and 7 tackles and a forced fumble at California. He had a team-best 8 tackles at Notre Dame, 6 tackles against Stanford, 1 tackle at Colorado and 7 tackles against Washington. He had a game-best 14 tackles, with 2 sacks, and a forced fumble at Oregon to earn Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week honors, then had 9 tackles (including a sack) and a deflection against UCLA.

2010: Pullard redshirted as a freshman linebacker in 2010, his first year at USC. He was sidelined the first half of the season with a knee sprain.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2009 honors included Parade All-American, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Prep Star Dream Team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West honorable mention, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State third team, All-L.A. City first team and All-L.A. City Division I first team as a senior linebacker, defensive back and running back at Crenshaw High in Los Angeles (Calif.). He had 66 tackles with 2 sacks, 1 interception, 1 deflection, 1 fumble recovery and 1 forced fumble on defense and had 507 yards on 63 carries (8.0 avg.) with 9 TDs and 6 receptions for 88 yards (14.7 avg.) with 1 TD on offense in 2009.



HAYES PULLARD

As a junior in 2008, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team and All-L.A. City. He had 145 tackles with 26 tackles for loss and 6 sacks, 4 fumble recoveries, 3 forced fumbles and 1 interception on defense and had 968 rushing yards with 11 TDs and 15 receptions for 146 yards (9.7 avg.) with 3 TDs on offense in 2008.

As a sophomore in 2007, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Sophomore first team and All-L.A. City first team. Incoming Trojan Ajene Harris also prepped at Crenshaw.

He also was on Crenshaw's basketball and track (with a best of 10.9 in the 100 meters) teams.

PERSONAL: He is a policy, planning and development major at USC. His uncle, Robert Pullard, was a pole vaulter at USC (1971-74) who finished third at the 1973 NCAA meet and fourth in 1974. He and 15 of his USC teammates spent 5 days in Haiti in the spring of 2012 building homes and assisting those in need.

He had 5 tackles (1 for a loss) against Stanford, 2 tackles and 2 deflections at Colorado and a tackle for a loss against UCLA. He had 6 tackles, an interception in the end zone and a deflection against Fresno State.

2012: Shaw, who transferred to USC in the spring of 2012 from Florida as a sophomore safety, began his 2012 season with the Trojans as a strong safety but was moved to cornerback mid-season and ended up starting there. He also played on special teams. He was granted a hardship waiver by the NCAA to allow him to be eligible to compete in 2012 without having to sit out a year after transferring. Overall in 2012 while appearing in all 13 games (he started the final 7), he had 30 tackles, including 2 for losses of 3 yards, plus 6 deflections and 2 interceptions for 14 yards (7.0 avg.).

He had 1 tackles and an interceptions (returned for 14 yards) against Hawaii, 2 tackles against Syracuse, 1 tackle at Utah and 5 tackles and an interception at Washington. In his first start, he had a deflection against Colorado, then 6 tackles and a deflection at Arizona, 2 tackles against Oregon, 2 tackles for losses against Arizona State, 4 tackles and 3 deflections at UCLA and 5 tackles with a deflection against Notre Dame. He made 2 tackles against Georgia Tech.

FLORIDA: He appeared in 10 games for the Gators in 2011 as a redshirt freshman and started once. He had 22 tackles, including 1 for a loss, and had a deflection in 2011. He made 6 tackles against Auburn while starting and 4 tackles each versus Kentucky and LSU. He played in 1 game as a true freshman early in the 2010 season, but did not make a tackle, and was allowed to redshirt the season because of a knee injury.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 2009 Parade All-American, Under Armour All-American, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, EA Sports All-American second team, Prep Star Dream Team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Max Preps All-State Division I first team, All-CIF Western Division, Los Angeles Daily News All-Area first team and All-Golden League MVP honoree as a senior cornerback, quarterback, running back and wide receiver at Palmdale (Calif.) High. He had 50 tackles, 2 fumble recoveries, 2 blocked field goals and an interception in 2009 on defense, as well as completed 126-of-236 passes (53.4%) for 2,279 yards with 18 TDs and rushed for 921 yards on 115 carries (8.0 avg.) with 14 TDs on offense and returned 12 kickoffs for a 35.2-yard average.

As a 2008 junior, he was an All-CIF Western Division and All-Golden League selection as he made 40 tackles, 6 tackles for a loss and 4 interceptions on defense and also had 27 catches for 443 yards with 5 TDs and 133 rushing yards and 5 TDs on just 5 carries on offense.

As a sophomore in 2007, he passed for 589 yards and 7 TDs and also ran for 3 TDs.

(68) JORDAN SIMMONS

Offensive Line, 6-4, 335, So.*/Jr.
Inglewood, CA (Crespi HS)

2014: Simmons will battle for key playing time on the offensive line as a sophomore in 2014 once he is fully healed from a 2013 knee injury. He likely will sit out 2014 spring practice while recovering from that injury.

2013: Simmons served as a backup offensive guard and tackle as a redshirt freshman in 2013. He suffered a knee injury prior to the Utah game and was sidelined for the rest of the season. He saw action in USC's first 7 games of 2013.

2012: Simmons redshirted as a freshman offensive tackle and guard in 2012, his first year at USC. He had knee surgery prior to the season and was sidelined for the first half of the season. He was named USC's Offensive Service Team Player of the Year.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2011 honors included Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Rivals.com All-American first team, USA Today All-USA second team, ESPNHS.com All-American second team, Super Prep Elite 50, Sporting News Top 125, Prep Star Top 150 Dream Team, ESPNU 150, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Max Preps All-State Division I first team, All-CIF Pac-5 Division, Los Angeles Times All-Area and Los Angeles Daily News All-Area first team as a senior offensive lineman at Crespi High in Encino (Calif.).

As a junior in 2010, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team, Los Angeles Daily News All-Area first team and All-Serra League first team.

He attended Dorsey High in Los Angeles (Calif.) as a 2009 sophomore, making All-L.A. City Division I first team as a defensive lineman.

PERSONAL: Some of his artwork was displayed at the 2014 "Artletics" on-campus exhibit that featured the works of USC student-athletes.

(47) SCOTT STARR

Outside Linebacker, 6-2, 220, So.*/Jr.
Norco, CA (Norco HS)

CAREER: He has 11 tackles in his career.

2014: Starr will look for an increased role at outside linebacker as a sophomore in 2014.

2013: After missing most of 2012 with an injury, Starr was moved from linebacker to outside linebacker in 2013 fall camp and served as a reserve there as a redshirt freshman in 2013. Overall in 2013 while appearing in the last 6 games, he had 9 tackles and 1 deflection. He had 1 tackle against Oregon State and Colorado, 4 tackles and a deflection at California and 3 tackles against Fresno State. He sat out the Hawaii opener with an injury. He missed 2013 spring practice while recuperating from 2012 neck surgery.

2012: Starr, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2012 after graduating a semester early from high school, was a backup linebacker and special teams player as a freshman in 2012. Overall in 2012, he appeared in USC's first 3 games (Hawaii, Syracuse, Stanford) and made 2 tackles (both against Hawaii). He then suffered a neck injury prior to the California game and had surgery that sidelined him the rest of the season, which allowed him to redshirt.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2011 honors included USA Today All-USA first team,

(58) J.R. TAVAI

Outside Linebacker, 6-2, 270, Sr./Sr.
Redondo Beach, CA (Mira Costa HS)

CAREER: He has 77 tackles (including 10.5 for losses, with 3.5 sacks) and 1 deflection in his career. He has 11 career starts.

2014: The seasoned Tavai will look to continue as a starting outside linebacker as a senior in 2014.

2013: Tavai, who also was available to play both defensive end and tackle, spent most of his 2013 junior season at outside linebacker and had quite an impact when he moved into the starting lineup by mid-season. Overall in 2013 while appearing in 12 games (all but Washington State and Boston College after suffering an ankle injury prior to the WSU game) and starting 8 times at outside linebacker (versus Arizona and then in the last 7 games), he had 56 tackles, including 8 for losses of 43 yards (with 3.5 sacks for minus 29 yards). He was slowed early in 2013 spring practice while recovering from a 2012 broken foot. He made 2013 All-Pac-12 honorable mention.

He had a tackle each against Hawaii and Utah, then started against Arizona and had 10 tackles, including 3.5 for losses (with 0.5 sack). He had 4 tackles at Notre Dame, a game-high 11 tackles with 2 sacks against Utah, 4 tackles at Oregon State, 7 tackles at California and 3 tackles (1 for a loss) against Stanford. He had a team-best 6 tackles at Colorado, then 8 tackles, including 1.5 for a loss (with a sack), against UCLA and 1 tackle against Fresno State.

2012: Tavai was a backup at both defensive tackle and end as a sophomore in 2012. Overall in 2012 while appearing in 10 games (all but Stanford, California, Utah, all which he missed after getting injured against Syracuse), he had 17 tackles, including 2.5 for losses of 5 yards, and 1 deflection. He started 3 times, twice at end (Hawaii, Syracuse) and once at tackle (Arizona).

He had 3 tackles (with 0.5 for a loss) against Hawaii, then 2 each against Syracuse (with 1 for a loss) and Washington. He added 6 tackles against Colorado and 1 each against Arizona, UCLA and Notre Dame. He had a tackle for a loss against Georgia Tech before being sidelined with a broken foot.

2011: Tavai was a backup defensive tackle as a freshman in 2011, his first year at USC. Overall in 2011 while appearing in 7 games (all but Minnesota, Utah, Arizona, Notre Dame and UCLA), he had 4 tackles. He missed the Minnesota game with a hamstring strain and the UCLA game with an ankle sprain. He had 2 tackles against Stanford and 1 each against California and Washington.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2010 honors included Super Prep All-Farwest, All-CIF Northern Division Defensive MVP, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay first team and All-Bay League MVP as a senior defensive lineman and fullback at Mira Costa High in Manhattan Beach (Calif.). He had 95 tackles with 12 sacks on defense in 2010 and 278 yards on 59 carries 4.7 avg.) with 3 TDs on offense.

As a junior in 2009, he was All-CIF Western Division Defensive MVP, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay first team and All-Bay League Defensive MVP while making 92 tackles (with 7 sacks). Mira Costa won the 2009 CIF Western Division title.

As a sophomore in 2008, he was All-CIF Western Division, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay second team and All-Bay League first team while getting 72 tackles (with 2 sacks). Mira Costa was a 2008 CIF Western Division finalist.

He also was on Mira Costa's track team (shot put, with a best of 55-4 1/4, and discus throw), earning 2011 South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay honors.

PERSONAL: His initials stand for John Robert. His brother, Jordan, was a defensive lineman at Kansas (2012-13).

(82) RANDALL TELFER

Tight End, 6-4, 250, Sr.*/Sr.,
Rancho Cucamonga, CA
(Rancho Cucamonga HS)

CAREER: He has 44 catches for 451 yards (10.3 avg.) with 10 TDs in his career. He has 22 career starts.

2014: The often-used and productive Telfer, who has shared starts at tight end the past 3 years, figures to have an even more increased role as a senior in 2014.

2013: Telfer was on the field often at tight end as a junior in 2013. Overall in 2013 while appearing in 11 games (he suffered a knee injury at Notre Dame and was sidelined for the next 3 games: Utah, Oregon State, California) and starting 8 times (Washington State, Boston College, Arizona State, Arizona, Notre Dame, Colorado, UCLA, Fresno State), he had 6 receptions for 78 yards (13.0 avg) with 1 TD and made 2 tackles. He won USC's Chris Carlisle Courage Award. He had 2 catches for 17 yards against Boston College, 2 catches for 40 yards against Arizona, a 10-yard TD catch at Colorado and an 11-yard reception against Fresno State. He had a tackle against both Arizona State and Arizona. He missed part of 2013 spring practice with a knee injury.

2012: Telfer again shared starts at tight end as a sophomore in 2012. Overall in 2012 while appearing in 12 games (all but Washington) and starting 9 of those games (all but Syracuse, Oregon, UCLA), he had 12 catches for 100 yards (8.3 avg.) with 4 TDs and blocked a field goal on special teams. He sprained his ankle at Utah and missed the Washington game. He won USC's Bob Chandler Award (athletics/academics/character).

He had an 11-yard TD catch against Hawaii, then had 4 catches for 20 yards at Stanford and 2 catches for 17 yards against California. He had a one-handed 23-yard TD pass and blocked a field goal at Utah to earn Pac-12 Special Teams Player of the Week honors. He had a 3-yard TD catch against Oregon and 3 catches for 26 yards (with a 2-yard TD) at UCLA.

2011: Telfer started 5 games (Arizona, Colorado, Washington, Oregon, UCLA), including the season's last 4 games, at tight end as a redshirt freshman in 2011. Overall in 2011 while appearing in all 12 games (he also played on special teams), he had 26 receptions (third on USC) for 273 yards (10.5 avg.) with 5 TDs, plus a 2-yard kickoff return, a tackle and a blocked field goal. His 26 catches in 2011 was a USC freshman tight end season record. He made 2011 All-Pac-12 honorable mention. He made the 2011 CollegeFootballNews.com and Phil Steele Freshman All-American second team.

He had 2 grabs for 19 yards against Minnesota and 2 receptions for 28 yards against Utah. He caught a 44-yard TD. He had a 10-yard catch against Arizona, 2 catches for 12 yards at California and 2 catches for 14 yards at Notre Dame, with a 2-yard TD. He had 5 receptions for 45 yards against Stanford, with a 12-yard TD. At Colorado, he had a 6-

(98) CODY TEMPLE

Defensive Line, 6-2, 300, Jr.*/Sr.
Bakersfield, CA (Liberty HS)

2014: Temple will compete to get into the defensive line playing rotation as a junior in 2014. He likely will sit out 2014 spring practice while recovering from a 2013 ankle injury.

2013: Temple, who missed most of 2012 with an injury, was a reserve defensive tackle as a sophomore in 2013. He saw brief action in 7 games in 2013 (Boston College, Arizona State, Arizona, Notre Dame, Utah, Oregon State, Fresno State), but did not make a tackle. He suffered a foot injury in 2013 fall camp and missed the Hawaii opener. He then suffered an ankle injury prior to the California game and missed that game. He was slowed early in 2013 spring practice after having 2012 ankle surgery.

2012: Temple was switched from center to defensive tackle in the spring of 2012, but did not see any action as a redshirt freshman in 2012. He had ankle surgery prior to the Colorado game and was sidelined the rest of the season. He missed part of 2012 spring practice after having ankle surgery.

2011: Temple redshirted as a freshman center in 2011, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2010 honors included Cal-Hi Sports All-State third team, Super Prep All-Farwest and All-Southwest Yosemite League first team as a senior offensive and defensive lineman at Liberty High in Bakersfield (Calif.). He had 95 tackles, with 2 sacks, plus 7 fumble recoveries and 5 forced fumbles in 2010.

As a junior in 2009, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass second team while getting 102 tackles, with 7 sacks.

He also was a shot putter (best of 57-5 1/4) and discus thrower (best of 171-5) at Liberty (at the 2010 CIF Central Section Masters Meet, he was third in the shot and fifth in the discus).

(93) GREG TOWNSEND JR.

Defensive Line, 6-3, 275, Jr.*/Sr.,
Los Angeles, CA (Beverly Hills HS)

2014: Townsend will battle for playing time on the defensive line as a junior in 2014 once he is recovered from a 2013 knee and ankle injury. He likely will see limited action during 2014 spring practice while recovering from those injuries.

2013: Townsend was set to compete for playing time at defensive end as a sophomore in 2013, but he suffered a knee and ankle injury in 2013 fall camp and sat out the 2013 season. He was slowed in 2013 spring practice while recuperating from 2012 knee surgery.

2012: Townsend was a backup defensive end as a redshirt freshman in 2012. Overall in 2012 while appearing in 10 games (all but Stanford and Washington), he had 15 tackles, including 1.5 sacks of 6 yards.

He had 3 tackles (with a sack) against Hawaii, 2 tackles against Syracuse, 1 tackle each against California and Utah and then 2 tackles each against Colorado (with 0.5 sack), Arizona, Oregon and Arizona State. He had knee cartilage surgery prior to the Georgia Tech game and missed that game.

2011: Townsend redshirted as a freshman defensive end in 2011, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2010 honors included Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, UnderArmour All-American, ESPNU 150, Rivals 100, Prep Star Dream Team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-CIF Western Division and All-Ocean League Defensive MVP as a senior defensive lineman at Beverly Hills (Calif.) High. He missed part of the 2010 season with a jaw injury.

As a junior in 2009, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass second team and All-CIF Western Division. He had 73 tackles, with 7.5 sacks, plus 3 forced fumbles, 1 fumble recovery and 3 blocked PATs in 2009.

As a sophomore in 2008, he had 38 tackles, with 3 sacks.

He also played basketball at Beverly Hills.

PERSONAL: His father, Greg, played at TCU (1981-82) and then was a 4-time All-Pro defensive end with the NFL's Los Angeles/Oakland Raiders (1983-93, 1997) and Philadelphia Eagles (1994).

(75) MAX TUERK

Offensive Line, 6-6, 285, Jr./Jr.
Trabuco Canyon, CA
(Santa Margarita HS)

CAREER: He has 20 career starts.

2014: Tuerk, a 2-year starter who is USC's most versatile offensive lineman, will be in the mix to start at any of the line positions as a junior in 2014.

2013: After a standout rookie campaign in 2012, the versatile Tuerk started 13 games at left offensive guard and once (at Oregon State) at right tackle as a sophomore in 2013. He is versatile enough to play any offensive line spot. He made 2013 CollegeFootballNews.com Sophomore All-American honorable mention. He made 2013 All-Pac-12 honorable mention and Phil Steele All-Pac-12 third team. He even returned a short kickoff 1 yard against Fresno State.

2012: As just a first-year freshman, Tuerk emerged as the starting left offensive tackle for USC's final 5 regular-season games of 2012 after serving as an often-used back earlier in the season, and then he started at left guard in the season finale against Georgia Tech. When he got his first start at Arizona, he became the first-ever USC true freshman to start at left tackle (and the first to start at tackle since Winston Justice in the last 12 games of 2002). He was named 2012 CollegeFootballNews.com and Phil Steele Freshman All-American first teams, as well as All-Pac-12 honorable mention and Phil Steele All-Pac-12 third team.

(72) CHAD WHEELER

Offensive Line, 6-7, 275, So.*/Jr.
Santa Monica, CA (Santa Monica HS)

2014: Wheeler will aim to hold down a starting spot on the offensive line as a sophomore in 2013.

2013: Wheeler started all season at left offensive tackle as a redshirt freshman in 2013 and did an admirable job. He also was used on some special teams and blocked a field goal against Stanford. He made 2013 Athlon Freshman All-American third team and CollegeFootballNews.com Freshman All-American honorable mention. He was USC's Co-Lifter of the Year.

2012: Wheeler, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2012 after graduating a semester early from high school, redshirted as a freshman offensive tackle in 2012. He missed most of 2013 spring practice with a knee injury.

HIGH SCHOOL: He missed part of his 2011 senior year with a shoulder injury that required surgery at Santa Monica (Calif.) High while playing both offensive tackle and defensive end, but earned Super Prep All-Farwest and Prep Star All-West.

He made 38 tackles (with 5 sacks) and 2 deflections on defense as a 2010 junior.

PERSONAL: He is an international relations major at USC.

His brother, Tim, played fullback and linebacker at Washington in 2010 and 2011.

STEVE SARKISIAN
USC HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

Steve Sarkisian, the head football coach at Washington for the past 5 years who previously spent 7 seasons as an assistant at USC, including on the 2003 national championship squad and 2 years as the Trojans' offensive coordinator, was named USC's head coach on Dec. 2, 2013.

"We are delighted to welcome Steve Sarkisian back to the Trojan Family," said USC athletic director Pat Haden. "We conducted a very exhaustive and thorough search. We kept coming back to Sark.

"He embodies many of the qualities for which we looked. He is an innovative coach who recruits well and develops players. He is a proven and successful leader. He connects with people. He has energy and passion. He knows how to build a program and create a culture that we value. He is committed to academic success and rules compliance. And he understands the heritage and tradition of USC."

This is the 39-year-old Sarkisian's fifth stop at USC as a coach or athlete. He played baseball briefly at USC before transferring to BYU. He then served as a Trojan offensive assistant coach, came back after a brief absence as the quarterbacks coach, then after a year in the NFL returned and rose to the offensive coordinator role.

At Washington, Sarkisian inherited a program in 2009 that had won just 12 games during the previous 5 seasons, including going winless the year before he took over. Despite that challenge, he guided the Huskies to bowl games his last 4 seasons (Alamo, Holiday, Las Vegas, Fight Hunger). His 8 victories in 2013 were the most at UW since 2000.

During his time in Seattle, his teams posted 8 wins over AP Top 25 teams, including twice over the Trojans (No. 3 USC and No. 19 California in 2009, No. 18 USC, No. 18 Nebraska and No. 24 Oregon State in 2010, No. 7 Oregon State and No. 8 Stanford in 2012 and No. 19 Boise State in 2013). He won 4 of his 5 Apple Cup games against in-state rival Washington State. He produced a 1,000-yard rusher each year. His overall Washington record was 34-29.

UW's school record-setting 2013 Washington offense was in the national Top 20 in total offense, rushing offense, pass efficiency offense and scoring offense, while the defense was in the Pac-12's Top 6 in every category. The 2013 Husky squad featured Doak Walker Award finalist tailback Bishop Sankey (No. 4 nationally in rushing), quarterback Keith Price (UW's recordholder in career TD passes, passing efficiency and completion percentage), 2013 Mackey Award-winning tight end Austin Seferian-Jenkins and safety Sean Parker (11 career interceptions).

Among the UW players Sarkisian coached were 7 NFL draftees, including quarterback Jake Locker, cornerback Desmond Trufant, linebackers Donald Butler and All-American Mason Foster and defensive end Daniel Te'o-Nesheim, plus All-Pac-12 tailback Chris Polk.

At USC, Sarkisian coached Heisman Trophy-winning quarterbacks Carson Palmer and Matt Leinart, along with NFL signalcallers Mark Sanchez, John David Booty and Matt Cassel. The Trojans went 23-3 when he was the offensive coordinator.

Sarkisian originally joined the USC staff as an offensive assistant in January of 2001. Then, after going to San Diego State briefly as the quarterbacks coach in January of 2002, he returned to USC in March of 2002 to handle the quarterbacks fulltime for 2 seasons (2002-03).

In 2002, Palmer won the Heisman and Unitas Award en route to setting the Pac-10 career records for passing yards and total offense (he was the No. 1 pick in the 2003 NFL draft), plus he was an All-American first teamer.

In 2003, Leinart was an All-American first teamer and was the Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year (he finished sixth in the Heisman voting) while setting Pac-10 season records for TD passes (35) and consecutive passes without an interception (212). He also had the highest passing efficiency rating of any USC quarterback (163.2). USC won its first national championship since 1978.

Sarkisian spent the 2004 season as the quarterbacks coach with the Oakland Raiders. His quarterbacks passed for more than 4,000 yards in 2004 as Oakland ranked eighth in passing in the NFL.

He returned to the Trojan staff in February of 2005 as the assistant head coach and quarterbacks coach for 4 seasons (2005-08). He added the offensive coordinator role in 2007 and 2008.

In 2005, Leinart won the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, finished third in the Heisman voting, was a finalist for the Davey O'Brien, Maxwell and Walter Camp Awards and was an All-American first teamer. He set 16 USC records (11 were Pac-10 marks and 2 was an NCAA record). He was the 10th pick of the 2006 NFL draft. USC's 4,157 passing yards in 2005 was a school record and the Trojans were fifth nationally in passing (319.8).

In 2006, Booty made the All-Pac-10 first team as he led the league in passing efficiency and total offense. He was a fifth round pick in the 2008 NFL draft.

In 2008, Sanchez made the All-Pac-10 first team while leading the conference in passing efficiency and total offense. He then was the fifth pick of the 2009 NFL draft. USC was in the national Top 20 in total offense, scoring offense and rushing offense.

While Sarkisian was at USC, the Trojans played in 5 Rose Bowls—2004, 2006 (BCS Championship Game), 2007, 2008 and 2009—as well as the 2003 Orange Bowl and 2001 Las Vegas Bowl.

Sarkisian spent the 2000 season as the quarterbacks coach at El Camino Junior College in Torrance (Calif.). His quarterback, Robert Hodge, earned All-American honors. El Camino played in the CHIPs For Kids Bowl.

Sarkisian starred at the quarterback position at the prep, collegiate and pro levels. He was with the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the Canadian Football League for 3 seasons (1997-99). He started in 1999 and threw 16 touchdowns.

He had a record-setting 2-year (1995-96) career at BYU, where he was coached by former USC assistant Norm Chow. He completed 549-of-824 passes (66.6%) for 7,755 yards and 55 TDs in his career. His 162.0 career passing efficiency rating was third on the all-time NCAA list. As a senior in 1996, he led the nation in passing efficiency (173.6, then the fourth best mark ever) as the Western Athletic Conference champion Cougars went 14-1 and won the 1997 Cotton Bowl. He was the WAC Offensive Player of the Year in 1996, won All-American second team honors and played in the East-West Shrine Game and Hula Bowl. As a 1995 junior, he made the All-WAC team and led BYU to the WAC title. Against Fresno State that season, he set an NCAA game completion percentage record when he hit 31-of-34 passes (91.2%).

He came to BYU from El Camino Junior College, where he starred for 2 seasons (1993-94). He was a J.C. All-American first teamer as a 1994 sophomore and won All-Mission Conference honors in 1993 as a freshman. He also played baseball (shortstop) at El Camino in 1993.

He actually began his college career at USC, spending the fall of 1992 on the Trojan baseball team before transferring to El Camino.

He was a standout football and baseball player at West Torrance (Calif.) High.

He earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from BYU in 1997 after getting his associate's degree in general studies from El Camino in 1994.

He was born March 8, 1974. He and his wife, Stephanie, have 2 daughters, Ashley, 12, and Taylor, 6, and a son, Brady, 9.

USC ASSISTANT FOOTBALL COACHES BIOGRAPHIES

TIM DREVNO
Offensive Line
Running Game Coordinator

Tim Drevno, who has an extensive collegiate coaching background, joined the USC staff in December of 2013 as the offensive line coach and running game coordinator. He has 23 years of coaching experience.

He served as the San Francisco 49ers' offensive line coach the previous 3 years (2011-13). In 2013, tackle Joe Staley and guard Mike Iupati made the Pro Bowl. In 2012, all 5 of the 49ers' line starters were selected for the Pro Bowl and Iupati was an All-Pro first teamer. The 2011 line led the way for running back Frank Gore to become the franchise's all-time leading rusher. The 49ers advanced to the playoffs in each of Drevno's seasons, including winning the NFC West title his first 2 years and capturing the NFC championship in 2012.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Drevno was an assistant at Stanford for 4 seasons (2007-10), the first 2 years handling the tight ends and the last 2 seasons coaching the offensive line. His line allowed just 13 sacks during those 2 years, ranking second nationally both seasons, while opening holes for a ground attack that set a school rushing yardage record in 2009 while ranking 11th nationally (218.2). Center Chase Beeler was an All-American first teamer in 2010. Stanford played in the 2009 Sun Bowl and 2011 Orange Bowl.

He was the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at San Diego for the 4 previous seasons (2003-06). The Toreros were named back-to-back NCAA Division I-AA Mid-Major national champions and won Pioneer League titles in 2005 and 2006. Under his direction, USD led the nation in total offense twice and also finished third and ninth in that category. USD led the nation in 2003 in total yards (483.3) while averaging 39.9 points. In 2004, the Torero offense was ninth nationally in total offense (432.4), 11th in scoring offense (36.1) and 12th in passing offense (275.4). San Diego set numerous offensive school records in 2005, including average points (42.6) and total offense (485.2). The 2006 San Diego squad led the NCAA Division I-AA in passing offense (293.3), total offense (494.3) and scoring offense (42.8). Quarterback Josh Johnson was one of four offensive All-Americans on the team and led all NCAA Division I-AA quarterbacks in passing yards (3,320), passing efficiency (169.0), touchdown passes (34) and total offense (336.7). He was a fifth round pick by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2008.

Drevno, 44, was the offensive line coach at Idaho for 3 seasons (2000-02). The Vandal offense ranked sixth in the nation in 2001 and eighth in 2000. He coached NFL players Jake Scott, Rick Demulling and Patrick Venzke at Idaho.

Prior to his tenure at Idaho, his coaching stops included San Jose State (offensive line, 1999), UNLV (running backs, 1998) and Montana State (tight ends, 1993-95, and running backs, 1996-97). He was a graduate assistant at Cal State Fullerton, his alma mater, in 1991 and 1992.

Drevno began his collegiate playing career as an offensive lineman for 2 years (1987-88) at El Camino Junior College in Torrance (Calif.), where he helped lead the Warriors to a national title in 1987 and then earned All-Mission League honors the following year. He then went on to start on the Cal State Fullerton offensive line for two seasons (1989-90).

He earned his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Cal State Fullerton in 1992.

He was an all-league player at South Torrance (Calif.) High.

He was born on March 20, 1969. He and his wife, Shannon, have 2 daughters, McKenna, 15, and Baylee, 10, and a son, Zachary, 13.

CLAY HELTON
Offensive Coordinator
Quarterbacks

Clay Helton is in his fifth year (2010-14) at USC as the quarterbacks coach. He added the passing game coordinator role in 2012 and became the offensive coordinator in 2013. He joined the USC staff in February of 2010 after spending 10 seasons as an assistant at Memphis.

In 2013, he served as USC's interim head coach in its victory over Fresno State in the Las Vegas Bowl. The Trojan offense was in the national Top 25 in red zone scoring.

In 2012, quarterback Matt Barkley won the Wuerrfel Trophy and was a finalist for the Manning Award, Unitas Golden Arm Award, Senior CLASS Award and ARA Sportsmanship Award as he became the Pac-12 career recordholder for passing yards (12,327), completions (1,001), touchdowns (116) and total offense (12,214). He also was a 2012 National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athlete. He was a fourth round pick in the 2013 NFL draft.

In 2011, Barkley was a Manning Award and Wuerrfel Trophy finalist as he set the Pac-12 season record for TD passes (39) and the USC season mark for pass completion percentage (69.1%), as well as school game standards for completions (35), pass yardage (468), passing TDs (6) and total offense (470). He was eighth nationally in passing efficiency and 16th in total offense. He finished sixth in the Heisman Trophy voting.

Helton, 41, began his 10-year (2000-09) Memphis career as the running backs coach for 3 seasons, then coached the Tigers' receivers for the next 4 seasons before becoming the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach the final 3 years.

Among the Tigers' running backs he tutored was school rushing/scoring/all-purpose running recordholder DeAngelo Williams, who went on to finish seventh in the Heisman Trophy voting in 2005 and be an NFL first round selection.

As the receivers coach, he produced a pair of Conference USA All-Freshman picks in Maurice Jones (2005) and Duke Calhoun (2006), as well as the school's No. 4 all-time receptions leader in Ryan Scott. In 2003, Memphis set school season records for receptions and receiving yardage.

As the Tigers' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, the 2007 and 2008 offenses were among the top 6 in school history in total yards and points. Both squads were ranked in the top 26 nationally in total offense. Quarterback Martin Hankins became Memphis' No. 2 career passer and set single season records for completions, passing yards and touchdown passes in 2007. In 2009, Curtis Steele had his second consecutive season with 1,000 rushing yards, Calhoun became the school's all-time leading receiver and Carlos Singleton set the career mark for receiving touchdowns.

Memphis played in 5 bowls during Helton's time: the 2003 and 2007 New Orleans Bowls, 2004 GMAC Bowl, 2005 Motor City Bowl and 2008 St. Petersburg Bowl.

Helton was hired as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Arkansas State after the 2009 season, but was there just 2 months before coming to USC.

Before Memphis, he was the running backs coach at Houston, his alma mater, for 3 seasons (1997-99), working under his father, head coach Kim Helton.

He began his coaching career at Duke, serving as a graduate assistant in 1995 and then the running backs coach in 1996.

He played quarterback at Houston in 1993 and 1994, playing for his father both seasons and captaining the Cougars as a 1994 senior. In 1993, he completed 1-of-3 passes in late duty in Houston's 49-7 loss to USC in the Coliseum.

He spent 1991 and 1992 at Auburn, where he earned 1992 SEC All-Academic honors. He redshirted there in 1990.

He earned his bachelor's degree in mathematics and interdisciplinary science from Houston in 1994.

He prepped at Clements High in Sugar Land (Tex.)

He was born on June 24, 1972. He and his wife, Angela, have 3 children: sons Reid, 16, and Turner, 10, and daughter Aubrey, 14. Besides being Houston's head coach from 1993 to 1999, his father, Kim, was an assistant in college (Florida, Miami and Alabama Birmingham), the NFL (Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Houston Oilers, Los Angeles Raiders, Washington Redskins) and the CFL (Toronto Argonauts) following his playing career at Florida. His brother, Tyson, is the offensive coordinator at Western Kentucky after assistant coaching stops at Cincinnati, Alabama Birmingham, Memphis and Hawaii and playing at Houston.

KEITH HEYWARD
Defensive Backs
Pass Game Coordinator Defense

Keith Heyward joined the USC staff in December of 2013 as the defensive backs coach and pass game coordinator.

He was Washington's secondary coach the previous 2 seasons (2012-13). UW's pass defense in 2012 ranked 23rd nationally. He coached safety Sean Parker, who had 11 career interceptions. The Huskies played in the 2012 Las Vegas Bowl and 2013 Fight Hunger Bowl (he did not coach in the Fight Hunger Bowl).

Before Washington, he was the secondary coach for 4 seasons (2008-11) at Oregon State, his alma mater. He coached such future NFL players Brandon Hughes, Keenan Lewis, Brandon Hardin, Al Afalava, James Dockery and Suaesi Tuimaunei. The Beavers played in the 2008 Sun Bowl and 2009 Las Vegas Bowl.

Before that, he was the linebackers coach at Cal Poly San Luis Obispo in 2007 after serving as a graduate assistant at Oregon State for 2 seasons (2005-06), working with the cornerbacks the first season and the next with the defensive line when the Beavers played in the Sun Bowl.

Heyward, 34, was a 4-year (1997-2000) letterwinning cornerback for the Beavers, earning All-Pac-10 honorable mention as a senior when he played in the 2 bowls, including the 2001 Fiesta Bowl, and the all-star Hula Bowl. He started 35 consecutive games.

He earned his bachelor's degree in communications from Oregon State in 2002.

He played professionally for the BC Lions in the CFL (2001), the Scottish Claymores in NFL Europe (2002) and the L.A. Avengers in the Arena League (2004).

He prepped at Taft High in Woodland Hills (Calif.).

He and his wife, Cameo, have a daughter, Kendyl, 1.

TEE MARTIN
Wide Receivers
Pass Game Coordinator

Tee Martin, the quarterback for Tennessee's 1998 national championship team who then played in the NFL, is in his third year (2012-14) at USC as the wide receivers coach. He added the pass game coordinator duties in 2014. He joined the USC staff in February of 2012.

In 2013, wide receiver Marqise Lee became USC's career receiving yardage leader. He was named the 2014 Scout.com Pac-12 Recruiter of the Year.

In 2012, Lee won the Biletnikoff Award and was an All-American first teamer, plus he was a finalist for the Walter Camp Player of the Year Award and Hornung Award and was the Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year as he set Pac-12 season records for receptions (112) and receiving yards (1,680) while leading the Pac-12 in receptions, receiving yards, all-purpose yards and kickoff returns. Wide receiver Robert Woods was a second round pick in the 2013 NFL draft.

Martin, 35, spent the previous 2 years (2010-11) as the wide receivers coach at Kentucky. He also served as the passing game coordinator in 2011. In 2010, Wildcat wide receiver Randall Cobb was an All-American first teamer and NFL second round selection, while wide receiver Chris Matthews tied for the Southeastern Conference lead in touchdown catches. Kentucky played in the BBVA Compass Bowl that season.

Martin began his coaching career as the passing game coordinator at Morehouse College in 2006, when the Maroon Tigers had the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference's top-ranked rushing, passing and total offense.

He then was the passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach at North Cobb High in Kennesaw (Ga.) in 2007, helping the Warriors to a 10-1 record in the Class AAAAA ranks, and the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at North Atlanta (Ga.) High in 2008.

He spent 2009 as the quarterbacks coach at New Mexico.

Martin also was a coach for the Elite 11 Quarterback Camps (2007-08), Nike football training camps (2007-08) and the Nike Combine Tour (2008). He has mentored and evaluated more than 1,000 quarterbacks, including more than 30 Division I signees. He also created the "Dual Threat" Quarterback Camp and Academy in Atlanta in 2008.

In 2007 and 2008, he also was a college football analyst for the Comcast Sports Southeast's twice-weekly show, "Talking Football," and he did a weekly radio show about college football, "Hot Tee and Touchdowns," on the ESPN affiliate in Atlanta, 680 AM The Fan.

After prepping at Williamson High in Mobile (Ala.,), he was a 4-year (1996-99) letterman at Tennessee. After serving as Peyton Manning's backup his first 2 years, he led the Volunteers to a 13-0 record in 1998, capped by the national championship following a Fiesta Bowl win over Florida State. He led Tennessee to another trip to the Fiesta Bowl in 1999 and was named All-SEC first team. He set NCAA game (since-tied 23 versus South Carolina) and season (since-broken 24) records for consecutive completions in 1998.

He was selected by Pittsburgh in the fifth round of the 2000 NFL Draft, beginning a 6-year pro career. After 2 seasons (2000-01) with the Steelers (Pittsburgh won the 2001 AFC Central Division title), he went to NFL Europe in 2002, when he led the Rhein Fire to a league-best 7-3 record and a berth in the World Bowl. He returned to the NFL with the Oakland Raiders in 2003, then moved to the Canadian Football League and spent the 2004 and 2005 seasons with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers.

He received his bachelor's degree in sports management in 2004 from the U.S. Sports Academy (through Tennessee).

He was born on July 25, 1978. His real first name is Tamaurice. He and his wife, Toya, have 2 sons, Kaden, 9, and Cannon, 1, and 13-year-old twins, daughter A'Yadra and son Amari. His wife is a recording artist with hit singles "I Do!" (2001) and "No Matta What (Party All Night)" (2002).

JOHNNY NANSEN
Assistant Head Coach
Running Backs
Special Teams Coordinator

Johnny Nansen joined the USC staff in December of 2013 as the assistant head coach, running backs coach and special teams coordinator.

He was at Washington the previous 5 seasons (2009-13) in a variety of roles. He was the special teams coordinator all 5 years and recruiting coordinator the first 4 years. He doubled as the defensive line coach the first 3 seasons and as the running backs coach in 2013. He also was the assistant head coach the past 2 seasons.

In 2013, the Huskies were in the national Top 20 in rushing offense, as Doak Walker Award finalist Bishop Sankey was among the nation's rushing leaders. In 2011, UW ranked No. 7 in the nation in net punting and No. 21 in punt return defense. He mentored NFL draft pick Alameda Ta'amu on the defensive line. In 2010, his special teams featured school record-setting punter Kiel Rasp. In 2009, Nansen coached UW defensive end Daniel Te'o-Nesheim, an NFL draftee who finished his career with a school-record 30 sacks. The Huskies played in the 2010 Holiday Bowl, 2011 Alamo Bowl, 2012 Las Vegas Bowl and 2013 Fight Hunger Bowl (he did not coach in the Fight Hunger Bowl).

The 39-year-old Nansen came to UW after having spent 5 seasons (2004-08) at Idaho, where he worked with the linebackers the first 3 years, defensive line the final 2 years and special teams each season.

He began his coaching career as the defensive coordinator at Cabrillo High in Long Beach (Calif.) in 1998. He then was a graduate assistant at Louisville in 1999, working with the defensive line as the Cardinals earned a berth in the Humanitarian Bowl, before spending the 2000 season at Montana State as the running backs coach and 3 years (2001-03) at Idaho State, the first 2 years as the cornerbacks coach (the Bengals won the Big Sky title in 2002) and the last as the secondary coach.

Nansen was a 3-year (1994-96) letterman linebacker at Washington State. The Cougars played in the 1994 Alamo Bowl. He received his bachelor's degree in business administration there in 1997.

He was a standout quarterback at Long Beach (Calif.) Jordan High.

He was born on Feb. 28, 1974. He and his wife, Hale, have 2 daughters, Makena Lei, 8, and Kealie Lei, 6, and a son, Johnny Jr., 2.

His nephew is Viane Talamaivao and his cousin is JuJu Smith, both incoming Trojans.

PETER SIRMON
Associate Head Coach Defense
Linebackers
Recruiting Coordinator

Peter Sirmon joined the USC staff in December of 2013 as the associate head coach defense, linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator.

He was Washington's linebackers coach the previous 2 years (2012-13), as well as its recruiting coordinator in 2013. The Huskies played in the 2012 Las Vegas Bowl and 2013 Fight Hunger Bowl (he did not coach in the Fight Hunger Bowl).

Sirmon, 37, spent the 2011 season coaching the linebackers at Tennessee after serving as the Volunteer's graduate assistant in 2010, working with the safeties as the team earned a berth in the Music City Bowl.

He was a graduate assistant at Oregon, his alma mater, in 2009, helping the Ducks to the Pac-12 championship and a Rose Bowl berth.

In 2008, he coached linebackers at Central Washington, helping lead the Wildcats to a trip to the NCAA Division II playoffs.

He was a linebacker with the Tennessee Titans for 7 seasons (2000-06), starting 5 of those years. The Titans won 2 division championships and appeared in the NFL playoffs 3 times during his tenure.

He started at linebacker for 4 seasons (1996-99) at Oregon, leading the team in tackles in 1997 and 1999 and earning All-Pac-10 first team honors as a senior. He played in 3 bowl games (1997 Las Vegas, 1998 Aloha, 1999 Sun), plus the Senior Bowl.

He received his bachelor's degree in political science from Oregon in 1999.

He prepped at Walla Walla (Wash.) High.

He was born on Feb. 18, 1977. He and his wife, Lindsay, have 4 children: son Jackson, 13, and daughters Presley, 12, Savanna, 10, and Sadie, 7.

MARQUES TUIASOSOPO
Associate Head Coach Offense
Tight Ends

Marques Tuiasosopo, who played quarterback at Washington and in the NFL, joined the USC staff in December of 2013 as the associate head coach offense and tight ends coach.

He spent 2013 as Washington's quarterbacks coach. He served as UW's interim head coach in the 2013 Fight Hunger Bowl (a 31-16 UW victory) after Husky head coach Steve Sarkisian became USC's head coach.

Before that, Tuiasosopo was the tight ends coach at UCLA in 2012 after having served as an intern in the Bruins' football office in 2011. He was elevated to UCLA's fulltime quarterbacks coach for the 2011 Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl. UCLA played in the 2012 Holiday Bowl.

He was an assistant strength coach at Washington in 2009 and 2010. The Huskies played in the 2010 Holiday Bowl.

Tuiasosopo, 34, was the 2000 Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year and 2001 Rose Bowl MVP as a quarterback at Washington, where he lettered 4 seasons (1997-2000). He set UW's career total offense record as he passed for 5,879 yards and 33 touchdowns while rushing for 1,495 yards with 21 TDs. In a victory over Stanford in 1999, he became the first NCAA Division I player to pass for 300 yards and rush for 200 yards in a game (he threw for 302 and ran for 207). In the 1997 Oregon game, he became the first true freshman to start at quarterback for Washington. He was the Huskies' team captain in 1999 and 2000. Washington also played in the 1997 Aloha Bowl, 1998 Oahu Bowl and 1999 Holiday Bowl.

Tuiasosopo earned his bachelor's degree in business from Washington in 2001.

A second round NFL draft pick by the Oakland Raiders in 2001, he played quarterback for the Raiders for 7 seasons (2001-06, 2008) and the New York Jets in 2007.

He starred in football and baseball at Woodinville (Wash.) High. He was drafted by the Minnesota Twins out of high school, but chose to play collegiate football.

Three of Tuiasosopo's 4 siblings were varsity athletes at Washington. His sister, Leslie, was an All-Pac-10 volleyball player at Washington (1995-98) and is now the Huskies' associate head coach. His brother, Zach, played fullback and linebacker at UW (2001-04), while his sister, Ashley, played softball at UW (2008-11). Another brother, Matt, signed a letter of intent to play quarterback for UW, but instead signed a professional baseball contract out of high school and has played in the majors with the Seattle Mariners (2008-10) and Detroit Tigers (2013).

He has football running throughout his immediate and extended family. His father, Manu, played defensive line at UCLA (1975-78) and then in the NFL with the Seattle Seahawks (1979-83) and San Francisco 49ers (1984-86). Cousin John Tautolo played at UCLA (1977-80) and then with the New York Giants (1982-83) and Los Angeles Raiders (1987) as a guard, while cousin Terry Tautolo played at UCLA (1974-75) and with the Philadelphia Eagles (1976-79), San Francisco 49ers (1980-81), Detroit Lions (1981-82, 1984) and Miami Dolphins (1983) as a linebacker. His second cousins are former USC offensive guard Titus Tuiasosopo (1990-92), Navy Tuiasosopo, who played at Utah State (1983-86) and then with the Los Angeles Rams (1987), and Mike Tuiasosopo, who played at Pacific Lutheran, then was an assistant coach at Pacific (1991), Utah State (1996-99), Nevada (2000-02), Utah (2003), Arizona (2004-10), Colorado (2011-12) and now at UCLA.

He was born on March 22, 1979. He and his wife Lisa, a former volleyball player at North Carolina, have two sons, Brayden,5, and Bryce, 3, and a daughter, Kylie, 1.

JUSTIN WILCOX
Defensive Coordinator

Wilcox, who has been a defensive coordinator at 4 schools, joined the USC staff in December of 2013 as the defensive coordinator.

He served as Washington's defensive coordinator the previous 2 seasons (2012-13). In 2012, the Huskies were in the national Top 40 in total defense, scoring defense and pass defense after finishing the previous year ranked lower than 105th in each category. UW's scoring defense was in the national Top 35 in 2013, while its pass efficiency defense improved 60 spots to 27th nationally in 2012 and then was 11th in 2013 (first in the Pac-12). Its 41 pass sacks in 2013 are second most nationally. The Huskies played in the 2012 Las Vegas Bowl and 2013 Fight Hunger Bowl.

Before that, Wilcox was Tennessee's defensive coordinator for 2 years (2010-11). The Volunteers were 28th nationally in total defense (340.5) in 2011. In 2010, his defense limited foes to 14 or fewer points in 4 November games. Tennessee played in the 2010 Music City Bowl.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Boise State in 2001 and 2002. BSU was in the 2002 Humanitarian Bowl.

He then was the linebackers coach at California for 3 seasons (2003-05) as the Golden Bears went 26-12 and played in 3 bowls in that span (2003 Insight Bowl, 2004 Holiday Bowl, 2005 Las Vegas Bowl).

He returned to Boise State as defensive coordinator for 4 seasons (2006-09), helping the Broncos to a 49-4 record while leading the Western Athletic Conference in defense each year. In 2006, BSU was eighth nationally in rushing defense (89.1) as the team went 13-0. In 2008, BSU was third nationally in scoring defense (12.6) as 8 of its 13 opponents scored just 10 points or less. In 2009, BSU was 14th nationally in total defense (300.2) and scoring defense (17.1) and third in turnover margin (+1.5). The Broncos played in the 2007 Fiesta Bowl, 2007 Hawaii Bowl, 2008 Poinsettia Bowl and 2010 Fiesta Bowl.

Wilcox, 37, played safety and cornerback at Oregon (1996-99) as the Ducks played in 3 bowl games (1997 Las Vegas Bowl, 1998 Aloha Classic, 1999 Sun Bowl). In 1999, he made the All-Pac-10 second team and Pac-10 All-Academic first team.

He earned his bachelor's degree in anthropology from Oregon in 1999.

He prepped at Junction City (Ore.) High, leading the team to the state 3A title as a junior quarterback in 1993.

He was born Nov. 12, 1976. He is single. His father, Dave Wilcox, was a Pro Football Hall of Fame linebacker with the San Francisco 49ers (1964-74). Justin's father (1962-63), as well as his uncle, John (a tackle, 1958-59), and his brother, Josh (a tight end, 1993-96), all played at Oregon. John then played with the Philadelphia Eagles (1960) and Josh with the New Orleans Saints (1998-99).

CHRIS WILSON
Defensive Line

Chris Wilson, whose 21-year collegiate coaching career has included handling the defensive line at Oklahoma, Colorado, Mississippi State and Georgia, was named USC's defensive line coach in January of 2014.

Wilson, 45, spent 2013 as Georgia's defensive line coach. The Bulldogs, who played in the 2014 Gator Bowl, were 28th nationally in sacks in 2014.

He spent the previous 3 seasons (2010-12) at Mississippi State handling the defensive line. He also was the Bulldogs' co-defensive coordinator in 2010 before becoming defensive coordinator the final 2 years. In 2010, MSU was 15th nationally in rushing defense and 17th in tackles for a loss. The Bulldogs improved in 7 defensive statistical categories in 2011, including ranking 16th nationally in scoring defense (19.7), tied for eighth in fumble recoveries and tied for 14th in interceptions. Defensive lineman Fletcher Cox was a 2011 All-American and an NFL first round draft pick. MSU played in the 2011 and 2013 Gator Bowls and 2011 Music City Bowl.

Wilson came to Mississippi State after 5 seasons (2005-09) coaching the defensive ends at Oklahoma, his alma mater. He also was the special teams coordinator the final 3 years there. The Sooners led the Big 12 in sacks in 2007 and then in 2009 they were eighth nationally in rushing defense and total defense and seventh in scoring defense. Oklahoma played in the 2005 Holiday Bowl, 2007 and 2008 Fiesta Bowls, 2009 BCS Championship Game and 2009 Sun Bowl.

Before that, he was Colorado's defensive line coach for 5 years (2000-04). The Buffaloes won 3 Big 12 North titles during that time and were 15th nationally in sacks in 2004. Colorado played in the 2002 Fiesta Bowl, 2002 Alamo Bowl and 2004 Houston Bowl.

He was the defensive line coach at Illinois State for 2 seasons (1998-99), with the Redbirds' winning the Gateway Conference title and advancing to the NCAA Division I-AA semifinals in 1999. He then handled the same duty in the spring of 2000 at Army before going to Colorado.

He began his coaching career in 1993 as a graduate assistant at Indiana State, then became the Sycamores' linebackers coach in 1994. He handled the outside linebackers at Northern Illinois in 1995, then was the defensive line coach at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M Junior College in 1996 before returning to Indiana State in 1997 as the outside linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator.

He had NFL minority internships with the Dallas Cowboys (1995), Arizona Cardinals (1997) and Miami Dolphins (1998).

He was a 4-year (1988-91) letterman linebacker at Oklahoma, recording 303 career tackles. He twice was named team captain. He was a member of Sooners' squads that played in the 1989 Citrus Bowl and 1991 Gator Bowl. He was a 12th round NFL Draft pick by the Chicago Bears in 1992.

He earned his bachelor's degree in communications from Oklahoma in 1992.

He starred in football and track at Richardson (Tex.) High.

He was born on Jan. 8, 1969. He and his wife, Tina, have a son, Caleb, 17, and a daughter, Colby, 13.

ROSS CUMMING
Defensive Assistant

Ross Cumming, a former standout special teams performer at USC, is in his third year as a Trojan graduate assistant. He joined the Trojan coaching staff in August of 2012 working with the special teams and linebackers. He spent 2013 with the outside linebackers (he served as the interim defensive line coach for the Las Vegas Bowl). He is working with the defense in 2014.

In 2013, defensive end Leonard Williams was among 16 semfinalists for the Bednarik Award and was named an All-American first teamer and All-Pac-12 first teamer. Outside linebacker Devon Kennard was a finalist for the Lott IMPACT Trophy. Outside linebacker Charles Burks made the Pac-12 All-Academic first team.

In 2012, punter Kyle Negrete was a finalist for the Allstate AFCA Good Works Team.

Originally a walk-on who earned a scholarship in 2010, the 26-year-old Cumming was a 4-year (2008-11) letterman at USC. He was a reserve linebacker and special teams player who as a 2011 senior also served as the backup fullback and worked some at tight end. He had 35 career tackles while appearing in 47 games. He had 3 tackles as a first-year freshman in 2008, then added 9 stops in 2009 and 8 in 2010. He made 15 tackles, returned a blocked punt 17 yards (at Oregon) and caught 2 passes for 16 yards (8.0 avg.) in 2011 while winning USC's Special Teams Player of the Year Award.

He spent 2006 and 2007 at the Naval Academy Prep School, but did not play football because of an injury.

He was a tight end and linebacker at Santa Margarita High in Rancho Santa Margarita (Calif.), where he made All-Serra League as a 2004 junior.

He earned his bachelor's degree in public policy, management and planning at USC in 2012. He is working on his master's degree in communication management at USC.

Born Sept. 28, 1987, he is single.

JARON FAIRMAN
Offensive Assistant

Jaron Fairman is in his second season as a graduate assistant at USC. He is working with the offense in 2014.

In 2013 while working with the special teams, fullback Soma Vainuku made the All-Pac-12 first team as a special teams player and Nelson Agholor was an All-American second team and All-Pac-12 second team pick as a punt returner. USC blocked 6 kicks, returned 3 punts for TDs in a game to tie an NCAA record and allowed no punt return yards in 8 games.

Fairman, 29, spent the 2012 season as an assistant at Crespi High in Encino (Calif.), handling the wide receivers and working with the special teams.

In 2011, he was the wide receivers coach and special teams assistant at Western State College (now Western State Colorado University).

He spent the previous 3 seasons (2008-10) as the wide receivers coach and special teams assistant at Nichols College. He also served as Nichols' offensive coordinator in 2010 after being the passing game coordinator in 2009.

He was a wide receiver and special teams performer for 4 seasons (2003-06) at Fresno State (he redshirted in 2002), where he caught 46 passes for 572 yards (12.4 avg.) with 6 TDs in his career. He was a team captain as a 2006 senior, catching 12 passes for 101 yards with a score in 3 contests before suffering season-ending torn knee ligaments. He added 26 receptions for 348 yards (13.4 avg.) with 2 TDs in 2005 (the Bulldogs nearly upset top-ranked USC in the Coliseum that year) and 8 catches for 123 yards (15.4 avg.) with 3 TDs in 2004. His 5-yard rushing touchdown against Portland State in 2003 came just hours after his father, who was in town to watch the game, had passed away. He twice was named to the Western Athletic Conference All-Academic team. The Bulldogs played in 4 bowls (2002 and 2003 Silicon Valley Football Classics, 2004 MPC Computers Bowl and 2005 AutoZone Liberty Bowl), winning the first 3.

He participated in the training camp for the Arena Football League's San Jose Sabercats.

He was an All-State wide receiver and defensive back at South Hills High in West Covina (Calif.).

He received his bachelor's degree in health sciences and public health from Fresno State in 2007. He is working on his master's degree in communication at USC.

Born on Nov. 12, 1984, he is single.

IVAN LEWIS
Strength and Conditioning Coach

Ivan Lewis, a one-time USC staffer, returned to Troy in December of 2013 as the head strength and conditioning coach

He spent the previous 5 years (2009-13) as the head strength and conditioning coach at Washington. He worked directly with the Huskies' football team. He was named the 2013 Samson Equipment/American Football Monthly FBS Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year.

He came to UW after 3 seasons (2006-08) as an assistant at USC under Chris Carlisle, working primarily with the Trojans' quarterbacks and linebackers. USC won 3 Pac-10 championships and Rose Bowls during his tenure.

Prior to that, the 35-year-old Lewis was on the strength staff with the San Diego Chargers in 2004 and 2005, working with Dave Redding and Matt Schiotz, after spending 2 years (2002-03) at the University of San Diego, where he worked with the football team and various other sports.

He was an assistant football coach and strength and conditioning coach at Mt. Si High School in Snoqualmie (Wash.) in 2000 and 2001.

Lewis graduated from Idaho in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in education. He earned a master's degree in leadership studies from San Diego in 2003.

He was born on Sept. 14, 1978. He is single.

2013 GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 1 – August 29, Honolulu, Hawaii
USC 30, Hawaii 13
Att: 39,058

USC	3	17	0	10	—	30
Hawaii	0	5	0	8	—	13

No. 24 USC used a stifling defense that turned 4 interceptions into 20 points to win its 2013 season opener at Hawaii, 30-13, on a Thursday evening before 39,058 fans and a national CBS Sports Network cable audience.

It kept the Trojans, who have not lost to the Rainbow Warriors in their 9 meetings, undefeated in an opener since 1997 and in a non-conference road game since 2002. Troy started slowly behind an offense that sputtered at times.

USC got on the board first, getting a 20-yard field goal by PK Andre Heidari on its second possession after S Su'a Cravens, who became the first USC true freshman to start an opener at safety since Darnell Bing in 2003 at Auburn, picked off UH QB Taylor Graham.

Hawaii then went ahead, 5-3, after sacking QB Cody Kessler in the end zone early in the second quarter and then getting a 42-yard field goal from PK Tyler Hadden on the ensuing drive.

The Trojans then put 17 points on the board in the half's final 4:18, first on a 19-yard Kessler touchdown pass to WR Nelson Agholor after LB Hayes Pullard picked off Graham, then on S Josh Shaw's 35-yard scoring interception on UH's next series and then on Heidari's career-long 52-yard field goal at the gun (tying the fourth longest ever by a Trojan and the longest since Quin Rodriguez's 54-yarder in 1990 against Michigan State).

After a scoreless third quarter, Heidari added a 22-yard field goal early in the final quarter after S Dion Bailey's interception. TB Justin Davis had a 3-yard scoring run in the game's final minute, only to see the Rainbow Warriors respond 2 plays later with a 60-yard TD bomb from Graham to WR Keith Kirkwood with 30 seconds left.

USC limited UH to 231 total yards (the fewest allowed by Troy since Washington State had 229 in 2009), including just 23 on the ground (the fewest since San Jose State had 9 in 2009), and just 4-of-18 on third downs. The Trojans posted 7 sacks (2 each by DEs George Uko and Leonard Williams).

USC had 364 total yards (172 passing), but converted just 3-of-14 third downs and had 9 penalties.

TB Tre Madden ran for 109 yards on 18 carries, while Davis added 74 yards on 14 tries. Kessler was 10-of-19 for 95 yards with a pick in his first career start, while QB Max Wittek replaced him on the second series of the second half and went 5-of-10 for 77 yards. WR Marqise Lee had 8 receptions for 104 yards, his school record-tying 15th career outing with at least 8 catches. Bailey led USC with 7 tackles. It was USC's first 4-interception game since the 2005 Fresno State contest.

For Hawaii, Ohio State transfer Graham was 16-of-41 for 208 yards in his first start at any level in 3 years.

The game was USC's first-ever on the air of cable's CBS Sports Network and it marked the start of USC's 125th anniversary of athletics.

GAME 2 – September 7, Los Angeles Coliseum
Washington State 10, USC 7
Att: 77, 823

Washington State	0	7	0	3	—	10
USC	0	7	0	0	—	7

PK Andrew Furney's 41-yard field goal with 3:03 to play gave Washington State a 10-7 Pac-12 opening upset win over No. 25 USC in Troy's home opener on a warm evening before 77,823 fans in the Coliseum and a national FOX Sports 1 cable audience.

It was WSU's first win over the Trojans since 2002 (and first in Los Angeles since 2000) and was just its fourth victory in the Coliseum over USC since 1935. It was WSU's first win over a ranked opponent since 2006 and first versus a ranked foe on the road since 2000.It was USC's fewest points against the Cougars since also scoring 7 in 1941. The 10 points USC allowed were its fewest surrendered in a loss since falling 10-6 to Utah in 2001.

The Trojans played staunch defense, as WSU had just 222 total yards, including 7 rushing, and only 12 first downs (the fewest total yards against USC since San Jose State's 121 in 2009, fewest rushing yards since Arizona's -16 in 2006 and fewest first downs since California's 10 in 2010). USC's defense also came up with 3 turnovers (2 interceptions and a fumble recovery) and posted 4 sacks.

But the Trojan offense could never get untracked, gaining just 193 total yards, including 54 passing, getting only 14 first downs and converting just 3-of-13 first downs (including missing on its first 7 such tries). It was Troy's fewest total yards and passing yards since getting 189 and 23, respectively, at Florida State in 1998. It also was the fewest total yards allowed by WSU since 2004.

USC got on the board first on QB Cody Kessler's 4-yard bootleg run early in the second quarter following OLB Devon Kennard's recovery of a WSU fumble forced by DT George Uko. The Trojans then were driving late in the half when Damante Hornton intercepted a Kessler pass and returned it 70 yards for a tying TD. In the third quarter, PK Andre Heidari had a 32-yard field goal attempt blocked and then missed a 43-yarder on USC's next series. Then, late in the game, the Cougs drove from their own 20-yard line into field goal range, aided by a 50-yard completion on third-and-9 from QB Connor Halliday to WR Dominique Williams to set up Furney's decisive field goal. Hornton sealed the win on USC's ensuing possession by intercepting QB Max Wittek.

Kessler was 8-of-13 for 41 yards, while Wittek was 3-of-8 for 13 yards; the longest completion between them was 8 yards. TB Tre Madden rushed for 151 yards on 32 carries to become the first Trojan to open a season with back-to-back 100-yard rushing outings since Marcus Allen did so in his 1981 Heisman Trophy campaign. His 32 carries were the most by a Trojan since Sultan McCullough had 39 against California in 2001. WR Marqise Lee caught 7 passes, but for only 27 yards. S Dion Bailey led USC with 10 tackles and notched his second interception of the second (eighth of his career), while OLB Morgan Breslin had 2 sacks.

For WSU, Halliday was 26-of-38 for 215 yards and WR Kristoff Williams had 6 receptions for 56 yards.

It was the first time the teams had played since 2010 because of the Pac-12's scheduling rotation. It marked the 90th anniversary of USC's first season playing football in the Coliseum and was the first Trojan game there since an agreement allowed USC to operate and renovate the historic stadium. It was the first time that USC appeared on FOX Sports 1.

Att: 62,006

Boston College	0	0	0	7	—	7
USC	7	7	7	14	—	35

USC rebounded from a difficult loss the previous week by dominating Boston College on both sides of the ball and posting a 35-7 victory on a warm afternoon in front of 62,006 fans in the Coliseum and a national Pac-12 Networks audience.

QB Cody Kessler started and connected on 15-of-17 passes (88.2%) for 237 yards and 2 TDs, hitting 14 consecutive passes at one point. TB Tre Madden had 16 carries for 102 yards, his third consecutive 100-yard outing (the first Trojan to begin a season doing so since Marcus Allen had 12 straight in 1981), with a rushing touchdown and he also caught a TD. TB Justin Davis added 96 yards on 10 rushes with a score.

The Trojans had 521 yards of total offense (averaging 8.4 yards per play), including 257 on the ground on 43 tries, held the ball 36:36 and converted 5-of-10 third downs.

Boston College was limited to 184 total yards (just 83 passing), 12 first downs, 50 plays (12 less than USC) and 4-of-13 third down conversions. BC's 184 total yards were the fewest against Troy since San Jose State's 121 in 2009. USC was penalized 10 times.

The Trojans built up a 28-0 lead into the fourth quarter. Madden caught a 5-yard TD pass from Kessler late in the first quarter. WR Marqise Lee then ran 80 yards with a Kessler pass for a score midway through the second quarter. Late in the third quarter, Madden burst 30 yards for a TD and then on USC's next possession Davis jetted 17 yards for a TD early in the final quarter. BC got on the board on its ensuing drive as TB Tyler Rouse ran for a 29-yard TD against the Trojan backups. But USC answered on the next series as QB Max Wittek bulled in for a 2-yard score.

For Boston College, QB Chase Rettig was 11-of-24 for 83 yards and RB Andre Williams had 38 yards on 17 carries.

The crowd was USC's smallest at home since 2002 (52,961 versus Washington). The Trojan Marching Band held a halftime salute to late Los Angeles Lakers owner Dr. Jerry Buss, who had strong ties to USC and the band.

GAME 4 – September 21, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 17, Utah State 14
Att: 63,482

Utah State	0	7	7	0	—	14
USC	7	7	0	3	—	17

USC's stingy defense held down a potent Utah State offense and the Trojan offense did just enough to pull out a 17-14 victory over Utah State before 63,482 fans in the Coliseum and a national audience on ABC and ESPN2.

It was the schools' first meeting since 1989 and USC has won all 5 meetings.

The Trojan defense continued its impressive play of 2013, limiting an Aggie offense that came in averaging 49 points, 550 total yards and 29 first downs to just 14 points, 285 total yards and 13 first downs. It was the fourth consecutive game that USC held an opponent under 300 total yards. USU, which had been converting 30-of-46 third downs, managed to go just 5-of-17 on third downs and it failed twice on fourth downs in the fourth quarter. Utah State was penalized 11 times. USC sacked Aggie QB Chuckie Keeton 4 times and allowed him to connect on just 21-of-39 passes for 179 yards. He was averaging 370 total yards, but had just 164 against USC.

The Trojans got into Aggie territory on 11 of their 14 drives, but could only come away with a pair of first half touchdowns (a 1-yard run by TB Tre Madden late in the first quarter and a 30-yard pass from QB Cody Kessler to TE Xavier Grimble late in the half) before PK Andre Heidari's 25-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter broke a 14-14 tie and proved to be the decisive points (it came 6 plays after a shanked USU punt). Troy had just 282 yards of total offense and converted just 3-of-14 third downs.

Utah State's TDs came on a pair of short Keeton passes, the first an 8-yarder to WR Brandon Swindall at the top of the second quarter and a 10-yarder to WR Travis Reynolds midway through the third quarter. Only 3 of the Aggies' 13 drives penetrated USC territory and 7 of their series were 3-and-outs. The Aggies' average starting field position was their own 21-yard line, thanks to effective punting by P Kris Albarado (5 of his 7 punts pinned the Aggies within the 20-yard line, including 2 inside the 5). USU was held scoreless in the first quarter for the first time in 11 games.

Kessler was 13-of-26 for 164 yards, WR Marqise Lee caught 6 passes for 72 yards and Madden ran for 93 yards on 24 carries (his first sub-100-yard rushing outing of 2013).

DE Leonard Williams had 8 tackles, including 3 of USC's 10 tackles for losses, while LB Lamar Dawson and S-CB Josh Shaw each had 7 stops and OLB Morgan Breslin had 2 sacks.

TB Joey DeMartino had 72 yards on 9 carries for USU, while Reynolds had 5 receptions for 70 yards.

GAME 5 – September 28, Tempe, Arizona
Arizona State 62, USC 41
Att: 64,987

USC	7	7	7	20	—	41
Arizona State	7	13	28	14	—	62

Arizona State scored 4 unanswered touchdowns in the third quarter to break open a tight game and rolled to a 62-41 win over USC on a warm evening in front of 64,987 fans in Tempe and a national ESPN2 audience.

Several hours after the game, when USC landed in Los Angeles, Trojan head coach Lane Kiffin was fired.

ASU's 62 points tied for the most ever scored on the Trojans. The Sun Devils also tied USC opponent marks for most TDs, points and extra points in a quarter and most PATs in a game.

After TB Tre Madden ran for a 24-yard TD 3 plays into the second half to give USC a 21-20 lead, it was all ASU. Two plays later, QB Taylor Kelly hit a wide open RB D.J. Foster over the middle for a 74-yard score. Then, two plays later, S Alden Darby picked off a pass from QB Cody Kessler and returned it 46 yards for a TD. After USC went 3-and-out on the ensuing possession, Kelly hit RB Marion Grice for an 8- yard TD on ASU's next drive. The Sun Devils got another touchdown late in the quarter on Grice's 9-yard run to open up a 48-21 margin (it came after Madden's fourth down pass out of the Wildcat formation was intercepted).

USC got back within 2 scores with TDs early in the fourth quarter, the first on Kessler's 48-yard TD pass to Madden and then next on a 15-yard run by TB Justin Davis after Troy recovered an onside kick, but the Trojans could get no closer. ASU responded with TD runs by Grice (28 yards) and RB Deantre Lewis (1 yard) on its next 2 possessions. Davis added a 58-yard scoring burst late in the quarter to close out the scoring.

The first half seesawed. The Sun Devils scored on the game's opening drive on QB Michael Eubank's 1-yard sneak (it was the first points allowed in the first quarter by USC in 2013). Davis had a 26-yard TD run late in the quarter and then Madden caught a 10-yard Kessler scoring pass on USC's next series early in the second quarter. ASU then scored the next 13 points on its final 3 drives of the half to take a 20-14 lead into intermission: Grice caught an 11-yard TD pass from Kelly and then PK Zane Gonzalez hit field goals of 28 and 21 yards after USC turned the ball over on a Kessler interception and Madden fumble.

Arizona State piled up 612 total yards (261 on the ground) against a USC defense that entered the game fourth nationally in total defense (230.5) and third in rushing defense (59.2). USC's offense was equally potent, with 542 total yards (247 rushing). ASU averaged 8.7 yards per play to USC's 8.1. USC held the ball 33:34, but had 4 turnovers which led to 20 ASU points.

Madden (128 yards on 20 carries) and Davis (122 yards on 10 carries) both ran for more than 100 yards and both scored 3 touchdowns. Kessler, who completed his first 10 passes, was 20-of-29 for 295 yards with the 2 TDs, but he was picked off twice and sacked 4 times. WR Marqise Lee set the USC career receiving yardage record (and moved into second place on USC's career receptions list) as he caught 7 passes for 92 yards before injuring his knee on a punt return early in the fourth quarter.

LB Hayes Pullard and CB Kevon Seymour each had 8 tackles, while S Su'a Cravens had an interception.

For ASU, Kelly was 23-of-34 for 351 yards with the 3 TDs (he was intercepted once) and he ran for 79 yards on 4 carries. Grice, who scored 4 times, ran for 63 yards on 12 tries and caught 7 passes for 36 yards. WR Jaelen Strong had 7 catches for 103 yards and TE Chris Coyle added 5 grabs for 87 yards. Gonzalez's 8 PATs in the game tied the USC opponent record.

GAME 6 – October 10, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 38, Arizona 31
Att: 64,215

Arizona	0	10	7	14	—	31
USC	14	14	3	7	—	38

QB Cody Kessler threw 2 long touchdown passes and USC got 4 touchdowns from its tailbacks to help Troy hold off late-charging Arizona and give Ed Orgeron a victory in his debut as Trojan interim head coach, 38-31, under the lights before 64,215 fans and a live FOX Sports 1 national cable audience.

It was the seventh consecutive USC-Arizona game decided by a TD or less. It was USC's first non-holiday Thursday game in the Coliseum. It also was the Trojans' first Pac-12 win of 2013. Orgeron, who took over when Lane Kiffin was fired on Sept. 29, became USC's 24th head football coach.

USC got off to a 14-0 first quarter lead on 62- and 63-yard Kessler scoring bombs to WR Nelson Agholor and TB Tre Madden, respectively. Then, after Arizona got on the board with a 27-yard field goal by PK Jake Smith early in the second quarter, Troy upped its lead to 28-3 on TD runs by Justin Davis (11 yards a blocked Wildcat punt by FB Soma Vainuku) and Javorius Allen (1 yard). But Arizona got into the end zone in the half's final minute on a 57-yard pass from QB B.J. Denker to WR Nate Phillips.

After PK Andre Heidari nailed a 45-yard field goal on USC's opening drive of the second half, Denker threw 3 more TD passes: a 45-yarder late in the third quarter to WR Garic Wharton, then after Allen's 4-yard scoring run gave Troy a 38-17 advantage at the top of the fourth quarter Denker tossed a 9-yarder to WR David Richards and then a 28-yarder to Wharton with 4:18 to go. But the Trojans were able to run out the clock by staying on the ground for 3 first downs during 7 consecutive carries by TB Silas Redd.

USC had a season-best 546 total yards (249 rushing) to Arizona's season-best 508 (363 passing). Neither team had a turnover. Kessler hit 15-of-30 passes for a career-high 297 yards, including a career-best and game-leading 7 receptions by Agholor for 161 yards. Redd, seeing his first action of 2013 following a pre-season knee injury, had 80 yards on 19 carries. Four other Trojans ran for at least 30 yards (Davis had 38 on 9 tries, Allen had 37 on 6 rushes, TB Ty Isaac had 36 on 3 carries and Kessler scrambled for a 34-yard run, the longest by a Trojan quarterback since Carson Palmer's 54-yarder at California in 2001) to mark the first time that USC had 5 players rush for at least 30 yards since the 1990 Arizona State game.

DE Leonard Williams had a team best 12 tackles, while DE J.R. Tavai started at outside linebacker and posted 10 tackles, including 3.5 for losses. LB Hayes Pullard also had 10 stops.

For Arizona, Denker was 28-of-44 for 363 yards with the 4 TDs (all career bests), RB Ka'Deem Carey ran for 138 yards on 21 carries (his eighth consecutive 100-yard outing) and also caught 6 passes for 36 yards, WR Terrence Miller had 6 catches for 76 yards and WR Samajie Grant had 6 grabs for 33 yards.

USC played with 2012 Biletnikoff Award-winning WR Marqise Lee and OLB Morgan Breslin, who was leading the Pac-12 in sacks (both were injured).

GAME 7 – October 19, South Bend, Indiana
Notre Dame 14, USC 10
Att: 80,795

USC	7	3	0	0	—	10
Notre Dame	7	7	0	0	—	14

Notre Dame snapped a 5-game home losing streak to USC by holding off the Trojans, 14-10, before a sold-out crowd of 80,795 fans under the lights in chilly (mid-40s) Notre Dame Stadium and a national NBC audience.

It was the fewest points USC scored against the Irish since a 10-0 home victory in 1998, and the fewest in a loss and in South Bend since a 38-10 defeat there in 1995. It was USC's first non-conference road loss since 2002. The loss made new USC head coaches 0-6 in their debuts against Notre Dame when those games were in South Bend, the latest victim being interim head coach Ed Orgeron. It was just the 11th time that USC and ND met when both were unranked. It was just the second USC-ND night game ever in South Bend and the 7:30 p.m. start equaled (with the 2011 game) the latest kickoff in series history.

All the scoring was done in the first half as the teams managed just 173 total yards between them in the second half (only 52 by the Irish) as offensive injuries took their toll against stout defenses (there was an intermittent light rain after halftime). USC got inside the ND 40-yard line on its final 4 possessions, but crucial offensive penalties in each possession helped stall each series as the Trojans were driving (the third possession was set up when DE Leonard Williams forced a fumble and S Su'a Cravens recovered it at the ND 34-yard line with 6:27 to play). Notre Dame never advanced into USC territory after its first drive of the second half, when it got to just the 38, and the Irish converted just 1-of-8 third downs in the second half. USC lost WR Marqise Lee, TEs Xavier Grimble and Randall Telfer and TB Justin Davis to second half injuries, while Notre Dame lost QB Tommy Rees to a neck sprain on a sack by LB Lamar Dawson on the first play of its second series after halftime (the Irish threw just 4 passes the rest of the game).

Overall, USC missed a pair of field goals (1 in each half), was penalized 11 times (7 after halftime) and failed to convert its last 11 third downs after making good on its first 2 in the opening quarter. USC had 330 total yards in the game, while the Irish had 300.

After the Trojans stopped Notre Dame on fourth-and-goal from the 1-yard line on the Irish's opening drive of the game, USC drove 96 yards on its first possession, capped by a 1-yard TD run by TB Silas Redd. But ND answered right back, getting a 7-yard Rees TD pass to TE Troy Niklas. PK Andre Heidari put USC up with a 22-yard field goal midway through the second quarter, one series after he missed a 40-yarder. But the Irish drove 91 yards in 5 plays in just 1:29 near the end of the half, capped by an 11-yard Rees scoring pass to WR TJ Jones to give ND all the lead it needed.

Redd ran for a game-best 112 yards on 19 carries, QB Cody Kessler completed 20-of-34 passes for 201 yards with an interception, WR Nelson Agholor had 209 all-purpose yards (6 catches for 89 yards, 4 punt returns for 100 yards and a kickoff return of 20 yards) and WR Darreus Rogers had 6 receptions for 60 yards. Williams led USC with 9 tackles.

For ND, Rees was 14-of-21 for 166 yards, Niklas (58 yards) and Jones (46 yards) each had 4 grabs and TB Cam McDaniel ran for 97 yards on 18 tries.

GAME 8 – October 26, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 19, Utah 3
Att: 64,715

Utah	3	0	0	0	—	3
USC	7	9	3	0	—	19

PK Andre Heidari kicked a career-best 4 field goals and a dominating USC defense had 4 first-half takeaways that the Trojans converted into points to help Troy beat Utah, 19-3, before 64,715 fans in the Coliseum and a national Pac-12 Networks audience.

It kept the Utes winless against Troy in Los Angeles since 1916.

After Ute PK Andy Phillips hit a 42-yard field goal on the game's opening series, it was all USC as the Trojans scored off of each Utah turnover. After CB Josh Shaw intercepted a pass from QB Travis Wilson, USC got a 30-yard TD pass from QB Cody Kessler to WR Nelson Agholor late in the first quarter. Three plays later, LB Anthony Sarao recovered a Wilson fumble caused by OLB Jabari Ruffin, leading to a 35-yard Heidari field goal early in the second quarter. Late in the quarter, S Leon McQuay picked off Wilson and Heidari connected on a 38-yard field goal. Then, S Su'a Cravens intercepted QB Adam Schulz's pass on the next play with 4 seconds to go in the half and returned it 54 yards, with Heidari nailing a 20-yard field goal at the gun.

Heidari, who missed a pair of field goals in the previous game at Notre Dame and was in jeopardy of losing his job, hit a 40-yard field goal on the opening drive of the second half to finish the scoring.

USC limited Utah to a season-low 201 total yards, including just 71 rushing. The Utes completed just 37.7% (12-of-31) of their passes and were sacked 6 times. It was the first time since 2010 that Utah didn't score a touchdown.

USC's offense didn't fare all that much better, compiling 260 total yards, including only 30 on the ground. The Trojans converted just 3-of-15 third downs.

Kessler was 21-of-32 for 230 yards. Agholor had a game-best 9 receptions for 97 yards, while WR Darreus Rogers added 5 catches for 62 yards. TB Tre Madden ran for a game-high 60 yards on 12 carries. OLB J.R. Tavai led USC with 11 tackles, including 2 sacks, while Sarao and LB Hayes Pullard each added 9 tackles and DE Leonard Williams had 8 tackles, with 2.5 for losses (1.5 sacks).

Because of injuries, USC has only 52 recruited scholarship players available, including no scholarship tight ends (walk-on OT Nathan Guertler started at tight end), and things go interesting during the game. For instance, when OT Kevin Graf went out with an ankle injury in the first half, OG Max Tuerk moved out to play tackle. When Cravens went down with a groin injury during his interception runback, S Dion Bailey—who spent the first half in street clothes with a lingering injury—suited up at halftime and played the entire second half. Ten Trojan walk-ons played.

For Utah, Wilson was 5-of-14 for 51 yards passing and added 42 yards on 12 carries before Schulz, who was 7-of-17 for 79 yards, replaced him for good late in the third quarter.

USC 31, Oregon State 14
Att: 45,379

USC	14	7	10	0	—	31
Oregon State	0	14	0	0	—	14

TB Javorius Allen ran for 3 touchdowns and the Trojan defense picked off 3 passes as USC broke a 3-game losing streak in Corvallis with a dominating 31-14 win over Oregon State on a cool (mid-50s) Friday night before an ESPN2 national cable audience and 45,379 fans.

It was the teams' first meeting since 2010 because of the Pac-12 schedule rotation.

Allen ran for a career-best 133 yards on 16 tries and added 4 receptions for 41 yards, while fellow TB Silas Redd had 140 yards on 22 carries plus 3 catches for 12 yards. CB Josh Shaw and S Dion Bailey had red zone interceptions and CB Kevon Seymour also had a pick.

USC piled up 489 total yards (242 rushing), converted 7-of-14 third downs and held the ball 36:10. The Trojans limited OSU to 369 total yards (just 92 rushing) and 2-of-11 third downs. The Beavers entered the game averaging 40.1 points and 487.4 total yards and sported the nation's top passing offense (420.8) behind QB Sean Mannion, the nation's leading passer (407.9), but he threw for only 277 yards on 26-of-45 passing. OSU WR Brandin Cooks came in as the nation's leader in receiving yards (157.0) and receptions (10.6), but caught only 6 passes for 88 yards.

After DE George Uko blocked a field goal attempt by PK Trevor Romaine on the game's opening series, USC QB Cody Kessler connected on the next play with WR Marqise Lee for a 71-yard TD bomb. Troy then drove 72 yards late in the first quarter, capped by Allen's 9-yard scoring run.

Oregon State tied the game midway through the second quarter as Mannion hit Cooks on a 27-TD pass and then S Ryan Murphy picked off Kessler on the ensuing play from scrimmage and raced 41 yards for a score. But the Trojans responded on their next series as Allen finished a 75-yard drive with an 18-yard TD run.

USC extended its lead on the initial series of the second half on PK Andre Heidari's 34-yard field goal. Then Allen jetted 52 yards late in the quarter to finish the game's scoring.

Kessler hit 81.0% of his passes (17-of-21) for 247 yards and Lee caught 5 passes for 105 yards. Shaw had a team-high 8 tackles, while LB Hayes Pullard added 7 tackles, including 2 for losses. OLB Devon Kennard had 2 sacks.

GAME 10 – November 9, Berkeley, California
USC 62, California 28
Att: 49,199

USC	21	20	14	7	—	62
California	0	14	7	7	—	28

WR Nelson Agholor had a record-setting day as he returned a pair of punts for long touchdowns and TB Javorius Allen scored 3 long TDs to lead USC to a convincing 62-28 win at California before 49,199 fans and a national FOX TV audience.

It was USC's most points against Cal since getting 74 in 1930, its most ever in Berkeley and its most points in any game since scoring 69 at Washington State in 2008. Cal remained winless since 2003 against the Trojans, who became bowl eligible with the victory.

Combined with CB Josh Shaw's 14-yard TD off a blocked punt, USC tied an NCAA game record with 3 scoring punt returns (held by several others).

Agholor tied a Pac-12 game record for scoring punt returns, shared with 3 others (including USC's Mike Garrett, who did so at Cal in 1965), and his 168 punt return yards broke Garrett's USC game mark by 6 yards. He had 215 all-purpose yards (averaging 30.7 yards per touch), as he also caught 4 passes for 35 yards and had a 12-yard kickoff return.

Allen averaged 22.5 yards per carry and 27.4 per touch as he ran for 135 yards on just 6 carries (the most yards ever on the road by a Trojan with 6 or fewer carries and the most anywhere since 1954) with a pair of TDs and had a 57-yard TD reception.

For the second week in a row, USC scored the first time it touched the ball as Agholor had a 75-yard scoring punt return. The Trojans opened up a 21-0 lead on their next 2 possessions, as TB Silas Redd caught a 12-yard TD pass from QB Cody Kessler and then Allen burst 43 yards for a score late in the opening quarter. It was USC's most first quarter points since also getting 21 against Washington State in 2010.

Cal responded by scoring touchdowns on its next 2 drives on QB Jared Goff's TD passes to WRs Kenny Lawler (4 yards) and Darius Powe (24 yards) midway into the second quarter. But USC quickly countered, getting 3 touchdowns in a 3:35 span to regain control. First, Allen took a short Kessler pass 57 yards to a TD, then FB Soma Vainuku blocked a Cal punt that Shaw returned 14 yards for a score and Agholor next returned a punt 93 yards for a TD (it tied the second longest punt return in Trojan history) to give USC a 41-14 halftime lead. It was USC's most first half points since getting 42 at Cal in 2010.

The Trojans added a pair of touchdowns—a 79-yard Allen run and a 4-yard run by TB Ty Isaac—to open a 55-14 lead by midway into the third quarter, when they started substituting in reserves and walk-ons. Cal scored late in the third quarter on a 7-yard run by RB Khalfani Muhammad. Isaac then added a 37-yard TD run early in the fourth quarter before Goff hit Lawler for another 4-yard score late in the game to finish the scoring.

The Bears had 96 plays (the most by a USC opponent since Stanford had 96 in 2000) for 483 total yards (190 rushing, 293 passing), while USC had just 51 plays but accumulated 499 total yards (256 rushing, 243 passing) to average 9.8 yards per play. Cal held the ball 33:03.

Isaac ran for 87 yards on 11 carries (7.9 average). Kessler completed 14-of-17 passes for 170 yards while playing only into the middle of the third quarter. OLB Jabari Ruffin led USC with 8 tackles.

For Cal, Goff hit 35-of-49 passes for 260 yards, Muhammad ran for 61 yards on 10 carries, WR Bryce Treggs had 8 catches for 39 yards (the fewest yards on 8 or more receptions against USC since 1946) and Lawler had 6 grabs for 54.

It was USC's first visit to Cal's renovated Memorial Stadium, which re-opened in 2012.

GAME 11 – November 16, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 20, Stanford 17
Att: 93,607

Stanford	7	3	7	0	—	17
USC	14	3	0	3	—	20

PK Andre Heidari kicked a 47-yard field goal with 19 seconds to play to give USC a 20-17 victory over No. 5 Stanford in front of a national ABC-TV audience and a loud sold-out Coliseum Homecoming crowd of 93,607 that stormed the field at the game's conclusion. The win snapped the Cardinal's 4-game winning streak over Troy, Stanford's longest in the series. It was USC's first game against a ranked opponent in 2013 and its first victory over a ranked foe since beating No. 4 Oregon in 2011.

After S Su'a Cravens picked off a pass from Stanford QB Kevin Hogan near midfield with 3:02 to play, the Trojans took 10 plays (including converting on fourth-and-2 at the Cardinal 48) to set up Heidari's heroics, USC's first game-winning last minute field goal since David Bell did so at UCLA in 2000.

USC scored on each of its first 3 drives, as a 1-yard touchdown pass from QB Cody Kessler to FB Soma Vainuku and a 1-yard TD run by TB Javorius Allen sandwiched Stanford RB Tyler Gaffney's 35-yard scoring run in the first quarter and then Heidari added a 23-yard field goal early in the second quarter to give the Trojans a 17-7 lead.

But Stanford got a 27-yard field goal from PK Conrad Ukropina right before halftime and then drove 92 yards on 10 plays on its first possession of the second half to tie the game at 17-17 on Gaffney's 18-yard TD run.

The Cardinal then twice got into the red zone, but OT Chad Wheeler blocked a 30-yard Ukropina field goal try late in the third quarter after Stanford had recovered a USC fumble at the USC 19 and then S Dion Bailey intercepted a Hogan pass early in the fourth quarter after the Cardinal drove to the USC 10.

Only 23 of USC's 311 total yards came on the ground, its fewest rushing yards since getting 1 yard against Utah in the 2001 Las Vegas Bowl and the fewest rushing yards in a victory since getting 23 in 1998 against Arizona State. Stanford , which scored a season-low in points, managed just 337 yards (210 rushing) against a Trojan defense that used just 2 substitutes (1 played just 1 snap). USC was just 4-of-14 on third downs and Stanford was only 4-of-12.

Kessler was 25-of-37 for 288 yards, while WR Nelson Agholor caught a game-best 8 passes for 104 yards and WR Marqise Lee added 6 receptions for 83 yards. LB Anthony Sarao had a game-best 12 tackles, while LB Hayes Pullard added 11 stops.

For Stanford, Gaffney ran for 158 yards on 24 carries and Hogan hit 14-of-25 passes for 127 yards.

ESPN's College GameDay pre-game show made its 10th visit to USC, but it was the first time it emanated from the USC campus (McCarthy Quad).

GAME 12 – November 23, Boulder, Colorado
USC 47, Colorado 29
Att: 36.005

USC	9	14	14	10	—	47
Colorado	0	0	7	22	—	29

TB Javorius Allen ran for 3 touchdowns, QB Cody Kessler threw a pair of TDs and the Trojan defense came up with a pair of key turnovers and a safety off a blocked punt to lead No. 23 USC to a dominating 47-29 victory over Colorado in front of a national Pac-12 Networks audience as well as 36,005 fans on a freezing night in Boulder (snow drifts ringed the field).

It was USC's fifth straight win and sixth consecutive Pac-12 victory, all under interim head coach Ed Orgeron. The win kept Troy perfect in 8 meetings with Colorado.

The 29-degree temperature at kickoff equaled the second coldest game in which USC has ever played, behind the 20 degrees in the snow at Notre Dame in 1957 and tying similar 29 degree marks in South Bend in 1949, 1952 and 1959.

USC led 23-0 at halftime and then 37-7 going into the fourth quarter before the Buffaloes scored 3 touchdowns against the Trojan reserves.

Allen opened the game's scoring with a 12-yard run late in the first quarter on Troy's initial drive. FB Soma Vainuku then blocked a punt out of the end zone for a safety near the end of the quarter. USC added a pair of TDs late in the first half following turnovers, first on a 1-yard Allen run after DE Leonard Williams recovered a fumble forced by DE George Uko on a sack deep in Buffalo territory and then on a 20-yard Kessler pass to WR Nelson Agholor after S Dion Bailey's interception. The Trojans had 206 total yards and 12 first downs at halftime to CU's 73 and 5.

Colorado scored on the first play of the second half when DB Jered Bell forced a fumble and returned it 31 yards for a TD. But USC responded on its next 2 series, as Kessler found TE Randall Telfer for a 10-yard score and then Allen raced 23 yards for a TD to put the Trojans up 37-7.

Colorado sandwiched a pair of touchdowns (the first on a 38-yard pass from QB Sefo Liufau to WR Nelson Spruce at the top of the fourth quarter and then on its next series as TB Michael Adkins II ran 3 yards) around a 39-yard field goal by Trojan PK Andre Heidari. The Buffaloes scored on their next possession as Liufau hit WR Paul Richardson for a 5-yard TD with 3:19 to go to pull Colorado to 40-29, but USC countered with a 52-yard Vainuku scoring run a minute later.

USC ended up with 449 total yards (243 on the ground), while CU had 312 (188 passing). Troy held the ball 33:24 and converted 8-of-16 third downs (Colorado was good on just 3-of-11 third downs).

Allen ran for a career-high 145 yards on 21 carries and caught 3 passes for 24 yards, Kessler was 19-of-28 for 184 yards and TE Xavier Grimble had a team-best 6 catches for 46 yards. DE J.R. Tavai and LB Michael Hutchings each had a team-high 6 tackles.

For Colorado, Liufau was 17-of-33 for 188 yards (he was 13-of-18 for 145 yards in the second half), Richardson caught 8 passes for 88 yards (all in the second half) and Adkins ran for 63 yards on 14 carries.

It was the latest date that any team from the Pacific Time Zone had visited Boulder.

GAME 13 – November 30, Los Angeles Coliseum
UCLA 35, USC 14
Att: 86,037

UCLA	7	7	14	7	—	35
USC	0	7	7	0	—	14

QB Brett Hundley ran for a pair of touchdowns to help No. 22 UCLA snap a 7-game losing streak in the Coliseum with a 35-14 win over No. 23 USC in front of 86,037 fans and a national ABC-TV primetime audience on Thanksgiving weekend.

It was the Bruins' first victory in the Coliseum since 1997, as well as its most points in the stadium since 1970 and its biggest margin of victory over the Trojans since 1970. Coupled with the Bruins' win in the Rose Bowl in 2012, it marked UCLA's first back-to-back wins over Troy since 1997 and 1998.

UCLA led throughout the game after opening a 14-0 lead early in the second quarter on a pair of short scoring runs by defensive players used in goal line situations (LB Myles Jack's 3-yarder at the end of the first quarter after a 15-yard USC punt and then DE Eddie Vanderdoes' 1-yarder to cap an 80-yard drive). The Trojans responded on their first possession of the second quarter with their own 80-yard drive, with TB Javorius Allen tallying on an 11-yard run to end the first half scoring.

UCLA got touchdowns on successive series in the middle of the third quarter on Hundley runs, first 12-yarder to finish an 85-yard drive and then a 6-yarder. Those scores sandwiched a 22-yard scoring pass from USC QB Cody Kessler to TE Xavier Grimble as the Trojans drove 80 yards. USC threatened to pull within a TD early in the fourth quarter before losing a fumble at the UCLA 20-yard line. The Bruins added an 8-yard TD run by RB Paul Perkins late in the game after the Trojans lost a fumble in USC territory.

USC suffered from poor field position all game (its average start was on its 20-yard line and only 1 of its 11 drives began past its 25), while UCLA continuously had advantageous field position (its average start was on its 40, with only 1 of its 12 drives beginning inside its 20) thanks to effective kickoff returns (CB Ishmael Adams had 130 return yards on 3 runbacks), ineffective Trojan punting (Troy averaged 33.5 yards on 6 punts) and the pair of USC turnovers.

UCLA had 396 total yards and converted 8-of-15 third downs, while USC had 314 total yards and was 6-of-14 on third downs.

UCLA had 6 sacks, including 2 each by OLB Anthony Barr and DE Cassius Marsh. Hundley completed 18-of-27 passes for 208 yards and led the Bruins with 80 rushing yards on 13 carries.

Allen had a game-best 123 yards on 20 carries, Kessler was 17-of-28 for 174 yards and WR Marqise Lee caught 6 passes for 69 yards.

USC LB Hayes Pullard had a game-high 14 tackles, S Demetrius Wright added 10 stops and OLBs Devon Kennard and J.R. Tavai each had 8 tackles with a sack. The Trojans used just 2 defensive subs (1 played just the game's last 2 plays).

GAME 14 – December 21, Las Vegas, Nevada
Las Vegas Bowl
USC 45, Fresno State 20
Att: 42,178

Fresno State	6	0	7	7	—	20
USC	14	21	3	7	—	45

QB Cody Kessler threw a Las Vegas Bowl-record and career-high 4 touchdown passes, including a pair each to WRs Marqise Lee and Nelson Agholor, and TB Javorius Allen ran for 2 more scores, while USC's defense throttled No. 21 Fresno State's potent aerial attack as the Trojans posted a convincing 45-20 victory in the 22nd Royal Purple Las Vegas Bowl in front of a sold out crowd of 42,178 fans (the second most in Sam Boyd Stadium and game history) and a national ABC-TV audience.

USC, which recorded its 25th 10-win season despite a season of adversity that included 4 head coaches, was led in Las Vegas by interim head coach Clay Helton, who took over the reins after former interim head coach Ed Orgeron resigned after the regular season (incoming head coach Steve Sarkisian watched the game from the press box). It was Troy's first 14-game season in history. Fresno State, which entered the game with a school-record 11 wins (and just one loss) after capturing the inaugural Mountain West Conference championship game, will meet the Trojans again to open the 2014 season in the Coliseum.

USC limited a Bulldog offense, which led the nation in passing (409.8) and was third in total offense (45.3) and fifth in scoring offense (45.3), to just 216 passing yards and 253 total yards. FSU QB Derek Carr came in leading the nation in passing (305.5) but was held to 216 yards on 29-of-54 passing (just 53.7%, well shy of his 70.1% prior to the game) with an interception. Bulldog WR Davante Adams entered the game leading the nation in receptions (10.2) and was second in receiving yards (137.1), but had just 73 yards on 9 catches. Fresno State held the ball just 18:33 and had only 61 plays (it ran the ball just 6 times for 37 yards, the fewest opponent rushes ever against USC) while converting only 2-of-14 third downs and 1-of-3 fourth downs. The Bulldogs went 3-and-out on 6 of their 14 possessions. All of FSU's scores came following USC miscues in Trojan territory, including twice on drives of less than 40 yards. The Bulldogs' 55 pass attempts were the most against USC since Oregon State's 60 in 2003.

USC had 499 yards of total offense on 76 plays with 24 first downs. Its 41:27 possession time was its most since getting 41:57 against Stanford in 1989. Game MVP Kessler outplayed Carr, his longtime friend from his Bakersfield hometown, as he hit 73.3% of his passes (22-of-30) for a career-best 345 yards. He was sacked just once by the nation's leading sack team. Lee had 7 receptions for 118 yards and Agholor added 5 grabs for 94 yards, while Allen ran for 86 yards on 27 carries and caught 4 passes for another 33 yards.

CB Kevon Seymour, who led USC with 7 tackles, was named the Defensive Outperformer of the Game, while sixth-year senior walk-on C Abe Markowitz, making his first start of the season, was the Offensive Outperformer of the Game.

USC opened up a 35-6 lead at halftime, including scoring the final 28 points of the half. USC drove 65 yards on the game's opening series, capped by a 10-yard Kessler TD pass from Lee. After USC's ensuing onside kick recovery was negated by a penalty, the Bulldogs took only 3 plays to get in the end zone on an 8-yard Carr pass to WR Isaiah Burse. Troy came right back on its next possession, as Kessler hit Agholor with a 40-yard TD pass.

The Trojans scored on their first 3 series of the second quarter, first on a 17-yard Kessler-to-Agholor pass (after FSU didn't convert a fourth down run), then on a 24-yard Allen run (following a failed FSU fake punt deep in its territory) and finally on Kessler's 40-yard throw to Lee. At halftime, USC had rolled up 326 total yards and 15 first downs to FSU's 138 total yards with 8 first downs (and just 1-of-8 on third downs), and Kessler was 14-of-18 for 244 yards passing.

The Bulldogs scored early in the third quarter after recovering a USC fumbled punt, with Carr hitting Allen for a 23-yard TD. But USC responded on the next series as PK Andre Heidari nailed a 39-yard field goal.

FSU S Derron Smith returned an interception 41 yards for a score at the top of the fourth quarter, but the Bulldogs went 3-and-out on their final 2 possessions. Allen's 1-yard scoring run late in the game finished the scoring.
